

Kingdom Law Legal Vocabulary:

Oath, Oaths

An Oath is defined as:

1. a solemn appeal to a deity, or to some revered person or thing, to witness one's determination to speak the truth, to keep a promise, etc.:
2. a statement or promise strengthened by such an appeal.
3. a formally affirmed statement or promise accepted as an equivalent of an appeal to a deity or to a revered person or thing; affirmation.
4. the form of words in which such a statement or promise is made.
5. an irreverent or blasphemous use of the name of God or anything sacred.
6. any profane expression; curse; swearword:
7. take an oath, to swear solemnly; vow.

There are many things that people take oaths for. They take an oath of office, as many people actually are swearing on a Bible that they will truthfully execute the duties of that office, no matter what that is. Police officers take an oath to uphold the law and to protect and serve the public. Those in the military take an oath to protect the constitution at the cost of their lives.

In God's economy, oaths would fall under definition #3, which is a formally affirmed statement or promise accepted as an equivalent of an appeal to a deity or to a revered person or thing; affirmation. I am pointing this out as this is taken very seriously by the Lord of Hosts.

This is how the Lord handles oaths:

An oath is a solemn promise that an act or recompense will be carried out by the person taking the oath.

1. If that person does NOT fulfill their promise, punitive measures will be taken to fulfill that oath by the Lord of Hosts personally. The Lord of Hosts will then receive the broken oath as an item that He will judge, and as you already know, The Lord of Hosts' judgments are FINAL.
2. It is not a good thing to violate an oath because of the punitive measures involved. You may rescind an oath if you want out of it, and you may reaffirm an oath if you want to change it. Violation of an oath is very serious and you will be judged.

Here is Our Challenge to all of you:

We challenge you to go to Jesus directly RIGHT NOW and ask Him if what is shown here is true. Use this as a means to start a conversation with The Lord Jesus Christ and sit with Him and ask Him questions. Start with (asking out loud):

“Jesus, is what I just read true?”

He will answer you, Christian; use this as an opportunity to start the conversation with the Lord Jesus Christ. Keep talking with Him. Get to know Him and He will start to reveal Himself to you.

You need to find out for yourself if what you support or believe is true, and what better way to find out than to ask the Lord Himself? You need to find out for yourself and work out YOUR salvation for YOU, as the scriptures tell us to.
