Vows

A Vow is defined as:

1. a solemn promise, pledge, or personal commitment:
2. a solemn promise made to a deity or saint committing oneself to an act, service, or condition.
3. a solemn or earnest declaration.
4. to pledge or resolve solemnly to do, make, give, observe, etc.:
5. to declare solemnly or earnestly; assert emphatically (often followed by a clause as object):
6. to dedicate or devote by a vow:

This is how the Lord of Hosts handles vows:

A vow is a solemn promise made by an individual person or being to participate in an action. Any vows made do go by the Lord of Hosts, and He will judge the person on what they vowed on and what they did while they were under a vow. Breaking a vow will result in Judgment, which the Lord of Hosts WILL judge, unless there is repentance and/or forgiveness given for the vow that was broken. The most common vow is the marriage vow, and The Lord of Hosts says that we would be shocked at how many people violate that vow. By NOT rescinding a vow correctly, which is through repentance and forgiveness by the Lord Jesus Christ or the Holy Ghost, a broken vow will result in judgment, with the appropriate penalties that apply.

The Marriage Vow

In the marriage vow, the participants in that action both agree to forsake others and stay together until death do them part, in sickness and in health, for richer and for poorer. Do people really understand what they have gotten themselves into? I submit, Christian, that most people who get married have NO CLUE as to what they have just agreed to.

NONE.

I can guarantee you that the thing that is on both of the participants mind is getting into those panties as soon as possible. They cannot WAIT for the consummation phase of that marriage. Most of the guys see their wives and say to themselves 'yeah, yeah, whatever. I am going to bust those DRAWERS in a hot minute...'; That bride is saying "yep, that's a FINE man, and I am going to enjoy ALL of that pee-pee... and it is mine... forever!!'

There is NO thought of the VOW that they have both taken.

Why?

They are consumed with lust, and then after they have consummated that marriage, reality hits them. 'What exactly did I get myself into? This dude is a slob!!' and 'Man, this girl doesn't even wipe... she stinks!!'

NOW they are wondering what they have just done.

A VOW is a sacred promise

What this couple has done, is to promise – before the Lord of Hosts Himself – to stay together and the Lord expects the participants to keep their promise. The Lord has allowed these two to get together so they can procreate with His blessing. A marriage is how the Lord of Hosts has replicated Himself in the earthly realm, and that is by having two people become one flesh, as it says in the Bible. It is also a means to create new people, also known as children, and that will complete the family unit that the Lord will bless as long as that family unit is in order. That union of two people is then sealed by a vow, which the Lord will approve.

OK, so far so good.

Now here comes the devil, trying to create discord in the marriage. She finds out that he is a slob, and he finds out that she doesn't wipe, and both are turned off by their spouse. The man then decides that this is not for him, and he files for divorce, citing 'irreconcilable differences'. That union is now torn apart by the devil, and he then goes on his way.

So what happened to the vow?

What the devil did NOT tell this couple is that they are now yoked together LEGALLY in God's economy, and any 'divorce' is considered a breach of the Vow. Now the Lord of Hosts Himself enforces that vow, and as you have already seen, that vow, if broken, is punishable by death, and the separation from the Lord forever.

Of course the devil is not going to say anything because he wants those people to damn themselves so they will go with him to the Lake of Fire.

That vow is a sacred promise, and the Lord of Hosts puts HIS name on that seal of that marriage. Do you really think that He is going to continue to put His name on a vow that has been broken? That makes that union unclean, and the Lord is not going to put His Name on ANYTHING that is unclean. If that marriage is unclean, He is going to discard it and hold those who have made that marriage unclean responsible, as they have used His Name on that marriage.

The devil makes Divorce easy

Can you now see how the devil continues to make divorce easy? Many people will remarry, not knowing that they have damned themselves because of the vow they have made. If they remarry, then the woman they marry is committing adultery, and the man is committing fornication (if she was not married before). Through this perversion, the devil has knit together a quilt of people's lives that have been disobedient to the Lord. This also yokes all of these people to him, and he then uses these people as he sees fit, spreading discord, strife and disease amongst the people who he has quilted together.

The Lord of Hosts is making this issue known to many who have divorced because they have NEVER RESCINDED their Vow. We already know that the Lord will hold those who have broken their vows responsible for those broken vows, and the penalty still applies.

Now, many people have gone through 2, 3 and 4 wives in the never ending cycle of Divorce and remarriage, and they have made that same vow for 2, 3 and 4 people. When these people die, the Lord is going to bring up those vows and this will damn people who have forgotten about the vows and think they are going to make it in. It is through divorce in the courts, that the devil has made sure is available to anyone and everyone, that people are ensnared and damned because they were ignorant of the costs involved with a vow.

The Lord is pulling your coattail, Christian

If you have ever been divorced, the Lord is pulling your coattail and telling you to get right with Him NOW before you die so that issue of a vow is off of your ledger. This is an offense that will damn you, Christian, so this is not something that you take lightly. Many people have no idea about the Laws that the Lord of Hosts uses to run His Kingdom, and now we are bringing this up so that whomsoever has transgressed the Law can get repentance for their transgression.

If you have been divorced, no matter how crazy he or she is, forgive them and bring this up to the Lord so He can tell you what you will need to do. The first thing would be to ask for forgiveness and repent, as you were ignorant of what you were doing. Many people get married for all of the wrong reasons, and they find out later that Mr. or Mrs. 'Right' was all wrong!

The biggest mistake people make

The biggest mistake that people make when they get married is to go with what THEY think. Again, they see a fine young man or a young lady standing in front to them and all they can think of is the wild, chandelier swinging sex they are going to have. Have these people understood the Vow they have taken? Did they understand that there are responsibilities that go along with that wild jungle sex? Has someone told them that that wild sex they think they will be having does stop after a few years, especially when you are married?

The mistake that people make is that they did not go to Jesus FIRST and get His blessing for their marriage. Jesus could see that the man that was to be married has 4 children from 4 baby mamas and he was just marrying you to get into your panties. Jesus could see that the woman that you are going to marry has the Jezebel spirit on her, and if you marry her, you marry Jezebel as well!!

Many a Christian has fallen for the trap and married a fine woman who, after taking off all of her fake breasts, booty and thighs, is an old 93-year old woman with no teeth and one leg that wants them!! It does not matter after that because that vow, if you go through with it, STANDS.

It is best to let Jesus choose who you are going to marry, or if you see a fine babe, you run it by Jesus first. For you women, run that dude by Jesus FIRST before you say 'I do', which seals that Vow you made.

We bring this up because many will perish

This is brought up because many people will perish because they have broken their vows. Don't delay – get with the Lord Jesus Christ today and get this off of your ledger. Sit with Him and get Him to explain to you what would have happened to you if you did not see this book and get that broken vow off of your ledger.

In doing this, you will be able to have Jesus sit and examine you thoroughly and get Him to tell you what you need to fix and repent of so your ledger will be clear. Jesus will do this for you if you ask Him to. This may be the first time you have ever really talked to Jesus about anything, and this is an opportunity to get yourself right with Him.

Other types of vows

The marriage vow is not the only type of vow that a person can make. Many make vows to stay celibate their whole lives. The Lord Jesus Christ does not want that for someone, but if they make a vow, He will honour the vow. Others take a vow for other reasons, such as not fighting, or not speaking, or not doing something religious. Many Nuns in the Catholic Church take a vow of celibacy, as they see the Lord as their husband, and are using that vow to stay true to their Lord.

Other people make vows to kill others, or to hound people for money that is owed them. People make vows for all sorts of reasons, and most of them are ignorant of what they are doing. If they FAIL in their vow, the penalties of that broken vow will still apply.

We used the wedding vow because most people know about that vow, as this will hit home for them. No matter what vows you have made, be sure you fulfill those vows.

Vows made in the Bible

Just so you can see, we will explore a few of the vows made in the Bible so you can see the seriousness of this legal instrument.

Numbers 30:2 - If a man vow a vow unto the LORD, or swear an oath to bind his soul with a bond; he shall not break his word, he shall do according to all that proceedeth out of his mouth. If a woman also vow a vow unto the LORD, and bind herself by a bond, being in her father's house in her youth; And her father hear her vow, and her bond wherewith she hath bound her soul, and her father shall hold his peace at her: then all her vows shall stand, and every bond wherewith she hath bound her soul shall stand.

Do you see, Christian, where a vow will BIND YOU and your soul with a bond? So who exactly is that bond to? It is the Lord of Hosts, who will hold you accountable to that bond you bound yourself to. Can you now see how a bond to your soul can be a death sentence? Not fulfilling your vow would make you a LIAR in front of the Lord of Hosts, and if that is not cleared by Jesus, you are then condemned to the Lake of Fire as all Liars will have their place there.

In the above passage, you can see that the young woman in her youth is under the authority of her father, and her father could rescind that vow if he so chose to. If the father chooses not to say anything, then her vow will stand and she is bound by that vow.

As you can see, vows are serious and they are nothing to play with. People who think that they can play with this will be very sorry when they are judged.

Make NO Vows until you run them by Jesus First

Vows are binding, Christian. If you made a mistake and you need to rescind a vow, do it now by asking Jesus to forgive you for being ignorant of what vows are. If you made a stupid vow that you want to rescind, The Holy Ghost, The Lord Jesus Christ and the Lord of Hosts will help you do that. Only they can rescind a vow and clear your ledger.

After you have that taken care of, be wise and make NO Vows at all unless you run it by the Lord Jesus Christ first. See what He has to say, and He will help you and keep you from binding yourself in a promise you cannot or will not keep.

Let's take a look at another vow made in the Bible.

Deuteronomy 23:21-22 - When thou shalt vow a vow unto the LORD thy God, thou shalt not slack to pay it: for the LORD thy God will surely require it of thee; and it would be sin in thee. But if thou shalt forbear to vow, it shall be no sin in thee.

Here, you can see the Lord explaining what will happen when you make a vow. He says that you better do what you say you are going to do, because if you do not, it will be sin. This is right in line with what I have been saying in this book all along. Notice how the Lord states that if you forbear, or in other words, to refrain or abstain from, desist from, to hold back or withhold making a vow, it will not be sin. Plainly put – DON'T MAKE A VOW YOU ARE NOT ABLE TO FULFILL.

Here is a simple verse with good advice that you should heed:

Ecclesiastes 5:4 - When thou vowest a vow unto God, defer not to pay it; for he hath no pleasure in fools: pay that which thou hast vowed.

I think that verse speaks for itself.

If you are not sure about vows, ask!

Take the time to sit with the Lord Jesus Christ or with the Holy Ghost and have them explain to you how serious a Vow is. Don't take my word for anything, Christian. It is now up to you to get with the Lord Jesus Christ and sit with Him and find out what this is all about. It is on YOU to find out what you need to do for YOURSELF so YOU will make it into the Kingdom of God.
