

You Believed in Jesus but
You did not Obey Jesus

In this short book, we are going to show why Obeying Jesus is just as important as believing in Jesus. There are two components to this that you have to understand so you will be able to move forward.

First and foremost, many churches teach that you should believe in Jesus, and for the most part, many of you do just that. However, very few churches teach you how to OBEY Jesus, and that is NOT an accident. Churches do this so you will not disobey the PASTOR, as he is trying to make sure that you attend church every week to put your tithes into the basket or plate. Your pastor is all about the money, and he is actually blocking you from knowing Jesus PERSONALLY.

What we will convey here is that you are to seek out Jesus PERSONALLY so you can learn from Him. You see, Christian, this is all about OUR salvation with the Lord Jesus Christ; you CAN talk to Him directly and you CAN ask Him questions. He WILL answer you so you will know it is Him and He will teach you and show you what you need to do.

Many pastors will try and intimidate people into making sure that they just believe in Jesus, as this is the doctrinal focus as they may have learned in the seminary. What we are saying to you, Christian, is that YOU are responsible for YOUR salvation, and NOT the Pastor. If you do and go to hell is YOUR fault.

So how do you look after YOUR salvation?

You look after YOUR salvation as you OBEY Jesus. The Once Saved, Always Saved doctrine taught in most churches have you focus on the promises that Jesus makes, but they neglect to tell you that you must OBEY JESUS as His Disciple. Let's take a look at a few examples.

Example 1

Upon reading this passage, it looks pretty straightforward, doesn't it? If we examine this scripture a little closer, we can see that people's perceptions are NOT what the Lord is talking about here. If we take a closer look at the word come, we can see where there is an issue. So, let's take a look at the word come and see what this means in the context of this scripture:

to come

1. to come from one place to another, and used both of persons arriving and of those returning
2. to appear, make one's appearance, come before the public
3. to come into being, arise, come forth, show itself, find place or influence
4. be established, become known, to come (fall) into or unto
5. to go, to follow one

Uh Oh, Christian, can you now see the issue? In this context, come means that a person will go to, or follow someone. If you substitute this in the scripture, you would have the following:

All that the Father gives me shall follow me;
and him that follows me I will in no wise cast out.

"Whoever wants to be my disciple must deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me." Mathew 16:24

Well, that changes the tenor of the passage, doesn't it?? With the definition of 'come', we can see that it really means 'follow or to go follow'. Jesus is saying here that if you follow Him, He will NOT cast you out. It involves the person to DO SOMETHING, Christian. You have to willfully FOLLOW JESUS and IF you do this, you will NOT be cast out.

So, what is involved in 'following' Jesus? Let's take a look in the bible, shall we?

- Matthew 4:19 - And he saith unto them, Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men.
- Matthew 8:22 - But Jesus said unto him, Follow me; and let the dead bury their dead.
- Matthew 9:9 - And as Jesus passed forth from thence, he saw a man, named Matthew, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he saith unto him, Follow me. And he arose, and followed him.
- Matthew 16:24 - Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.
- Matthew 19:21 - Jesus said unto him, If thou wilt be perfect, go and sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come and follow me.

- Mark 2:14 - And as he passed by, he saw Levi the son of Alphaeus sitting at the receipt of custom, and said unto him, Follow me. And he arose and followed him.
- Mark 8:34 - And when he had called the people unto him with his disciples also, he said unto them, Whosoever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.
- Mark 10:21 - Then Jesus beholding him loved him, and said unto him, One thing thou lackest: go thy way, sell whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, take up the cross, and follow me.
- Luke 5:27 - And after these things he went forth, and saw a publican, named Levi, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he said unto him, Follow me.
- Luke 9:23 - And he said to them all, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me.
- Luke 18:22 - Now when Jesus heard these things, he said unto him, Yet lackest thou one thing: sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me.
- John 1:43 - The day following Jesus would go forth into Galilee, and findeth Philip, and saith unto him, Follow me.

You can see that you have to DO SOMETHING in all of these scriptures, Christian. Notice that in all of these scriptures, the Lord Jesus Christ commanded that the people follow Him? Notice that, as Disciples of Christ, we are to serve Him. Yes, Christian, you become a servant of the Lord of Lords and King of Kings.

So what does this have to do with salvation?

The Christian life is not about self-promotion; it's about self-denial.

It is pretty obvious that you have to follow Jesus before the promise in this passage applies to you. That means, Christian, you are to OBEY the Lord Jesus Christ and to do what He tells you to do IF you want to be saved. It is not just a confession from your mouth, Christian; it is the acceptance of you BY The Lord Jesus Christ to FOLLOW HIM.

This is where the once saved, always saved doctrine falls on its face. That doctrine says you have to confess the Lord Jesus Christ as your Lord and Saviour, and that is all you have to do to be saved.

No.

You have to confess the Lord Jesus Christ as your Lord and Saviour AND you have to FOLLOW HIM. That means you stop doing what you are doing and you do what the Lord Jesus Christ says. We know this is not what you learned in Church, Christian. Pay close attention to these scriptures:

John 10:27 - My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me:

John 12:26 - If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour.

Did you catch that, Christian? You become a SERVANT of The Lord Jesus Christ. As a servant, you do as your Lord and Master wishes. The once saved, always saved doctrine has Jesus serving YOU, Christian, which we have just shown is NOT TRUE. Remember - Jesus has the salvation that He GIVES TO YOU, Christian. How is it that if Jesus has the power to give salvation to you, He serves YOU?

That does not pass the giggle test, Christian.

All of this implies that YOU have to be a servant of the Lord Jesus Christ. YOU made yourself a servant when you confessed Christ at the altar, as you said you gave your life to Him as your Lord and Saviour. How is it that you can reason that He, Jesus, cannot blot your name out of HIS Book of Life if you do not qualify as His servant?

Let's look at this in another way.

What if you decide that you do NOT want to be a servant and you walk away from the Lord Jesus Christ? If you do not want to be a servant, then all of the salvation 'gifts' DO NOT APPLY TO YOU. These gifts ONLY APPLY to those who FOLLOW Jesus. Always remember that you have a will, Christian, and that will is yours to exercise. You can choose to NOT be a servant of the Lord Jesus Christ and walk away from your salvation.

How do you do that?

You disobey the Lord Jesus Christ. You have already read that the Lord will NOT turn you away if you follow Him; but if you choose NOT to follow Him, and go and do your own thing, the Lord Jesus Christ is NOT going to stop you, as you have your own will. However, the consequences of you exercising your will either save you or damn you, as it is your choice.

By saying that you can NEVER lose your salvation is saying that Jesus is going to run after you to give you salvation even if you walk away from it (which we have established is being disobedient to Jesus) making sure you get you salvation because you have confessed Jesus as your Lord and Saviour.

I am sure you can see how ridiculous that line of reasoning is.

So, to recap, the scripture is absolutely true. The interpretation is NOT correct, and this is the ERROR that the once saved, always saved crowd is in. As we always say on this site - don't take our word for anything. Go to the Lord Jesus Christ directly and personally ask Him if what we have posted is true or not, and go with that.

Example 2:

And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand. My Father, which gave them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand. I and my Father are one.
John 10:28-30

This is one of the most popular of the once saved, always saved proof texts. On its face, this scripture is absolutely true. However, as with many of the once saved, always saved scriptures, you have to catch the context. In this case, we are not even going to do that. When you look at the scripture, the first line says:

And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, and neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand.

My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me. And I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish; neither shall anyone snatch them out of My hand.

John 10:27-28

OK, that sounds great, but WHO is THEY? WHO is the 'THEY/THEM' that the Lord is referring to here? If we go back 1 verse, you will see who the 'THEY/THEM' is.

It looks like the Lord is referring to His sheep. OK, so who are the 'SHEEP'?

Let's see what the Bible says:

Strongs NT:

metaphorically, πρόβατα, sheep, is used of the followers of any master: Matthew 26:31 and Mark 14:27 (from Zechariah 13:7); of mankind, who as needing salvation obey the injunctions of him who provides it and leads them to it; so of the followers of Christ: John 10:7f, 15f, 26; John 21:16 (R G L Tr text WH marginal reading), John 21:17 (R G L WH marginal reading);

read the complete excerpt from the Blue Letter Bible here.

In this case, 'sheep' is a metaphor used by Jesus to describe....

Wait for it...

Wait for it...

All Followers of Christ.

Did you notice the wording of the definition? Here it is again in case you missed it:

..'who as needing salvation obey the injunctions of him who provides it... '

Did you notice the word 'OBEY'? The word of God is consistent, and it is consistently telling us that those who get the salvation will need to OBEY the one giving salvation.

In the last scripture, we saw that the Lord Jesus Christ made promises to those that follow Him. The context of this scripture starts back at John 10:24, as He is speaking to the Jews who want to know who He is. They are asking Jesus bluntly for Him to tell them who is REALLY is. Jesus references this by saying in John 10:26 that they (the Jews) are NOT His sheep, or better stated, NOT followers of Christ. Here is the full discourse:

John 10:24-31 - And Jesus walked in the temple in Solomon's porch. Then came the Jews round about him, and said unto him, How long dost thou make us to doubt? If thou be the Christ, tell us plainly. Jesus answered them, I told you, and ye believed not: the works that I do in my Father's name, they bear witness of me. But ye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep, as I said unto you. My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me: And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand. My Father, which gave them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand. I and my Father are one. Then the Jews took up stones again to stone him.

So what was Jesus really saying here?

Using a metaphor, Jesus was making the distinction between the Jews and those who follow Him, as the Jews were going to try and kill Jesus because He said that He was God.

The point here is that the promise that Jesus made ONLY REFERRED TO THOSE WHO FOLLOWED HIM. This passage, from John 10:28-30, ONLY applies if you were Jesus' sheep - which we defined in John 10:26. Only those who FOLLOW JESUS GET THE PROMISE JESUS MADE.

This disproves the claim that the once saved, always saved crowd says yet again. There is a CONDITION to the promises that the Lord Jesus Christ makes. In fact, if you look throughout the Bible, you will see that EVERY SINGLE PROMISE made was CONDITIONAL. The once saved, always saved crowd is overlooking that because it does not fit their narrative.

As you can see, the Lord Jesus Christ words are CONSISTENT: You need to be a FOLLOWER of Jesus before the promises made by Jesus will apply.

Well, you say, the promises apply because we have confessed Christ to be our Lord and Saviour.

Talk is cheap, Christian. Just because you 'confess', or SAY you belong to Jesus that does not mean you are a follower of the Lord Jesus Christ. Jesus has to recognize you - and accept you - as His disciple.

That is VERY important, Christian.

You are a follower - a Disciple of Christ - when you OBEY Him. As you obey, then Lord will then know you, as referenced in John 10:27. If you do not obey Him, you are NOT a follower of Christ, no matter how much you think you are, and Jesus Christ does not KNOW you.

Once saved, always saved is saying that you are to get the promises Christ made, no matter what, without being a Disciple of Christ, and this is error.

Again - As we always say on this site - don't take our word for anything. Go to the Lord Jesus Christ directly and personally ask Him if what is being posted is true or not, and go with that.

Jesus wants me to # OBEY

Him

Are you getting the point, Christian? OBEYING Jesus is where you should be, as when you OBEY Jesus, He then knows you. He tells you that in scripture:

John 14:15 - If ye love me, keep my commandments.

John 14:21 - He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him.

John 14:23 - Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him.

Isn't it interesting that as we go forth, it always comes down to OBEDIENCE. In the scripture above, we see that obedience to Jesus' commands is equated with YOUR love for Jesus. The more you obey, the more that Jesus loves you back.

In the scripture, we believe that this depicts the love that Jesus has for us, His disciples. If you are NOT a disciple of Christ, this scripture does not apply to you.

Why?

It is because anyone who is NOT a disciple of Christ is an ENEMY of God, as shown in this scripture:

James 4:4 - Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God.

By being obedient, we are demonstrating our love for The Lord Jesus Christ. This scripture does show that Jesus' love for us, who are disciples, is unwavering and eternal. However, Christians can and often do walk away from Jesus, grieving Him terribly, but He lets them go because they have a free will.

As always, take NOTHING that you have seen here in this book as the truth. It is YOUR responsibility to study and check out everything that you see and hear, and you have an advocate in the Lord Jesus Christ who will help you if you would just ask Him.

Take this upon yourself, Christian, as YOU need to get YOUR Bible, YOUR concordance, YOUR dictionary, YOUR pens/pencils, YOUR notepad and then YOU need to seek out the Lord Jesus Christ and ask Him to help YOU so YOU can make it into His Kingdom, since it will be YOU standing alone in front of Jesus when YOU are being judged.

It is YOUR responsibility to make sure YOU are in the faith and that YOU have completed YOUR sanctification during the sanctification process and YOU have gotten YOUR forgiveness and YOU have repented of all of YOUR sins before YOU are judged by Jesus.

Scripture tells us that hell will enlarge itself to accommodate all of the people who will be sent there because of idols like the pope, as you can see in scripture here:

Isaiah 5:14 - Therefore hell hath enlarged herself, and opened her mouth without measure: and their glory, and their multitude, and their pomp, and he that rejoiceth, shall descend into it.

Take this as a warning, Christian, as the Lord Jesus Christ is NOT desperate for people, as there were only 8 people who got on the ark before the flood, and only 2 people from the Hebrews from Egypt made it into the Promised Land.

Be wise, and stay IN Jesus so you are not lost.

Here is Our Challenge to all of you:

We challenge you to go to Jesus directly RIGHT NOW and ask Him if what is shown here is true. Use this as a means to start a conversation with The Lord Jesus Christ and sit with Him and ask Him questions. Start with (asking out loud):

“Jesus, is what I just read true?”

He will answer you, Christian; use this as an opportunity to start the conversation with the Lord Jesus Christ. Keep talking with Him. Get to know Him and He will start to reveal Himself to you.

You need to find out for yourself if what you support or believe is true, and what better way to find out than to ask the Lord Himself? You need to find out for yourself and work out YOUR salvation for YOU, as the scriptures tell us to.

Get into the FIGHT

After you have gotten right with the Lord and secured your household, you can continue your service to the Lord by getting into the fight. You already have experience casting out devils, and standing up to Jezebel; you are fiercely defending your household against all threats and you have overcome them. Your household is in order; your family is in order; there is peace in your household, and all defiling elements have been dealt with for now.

So what do you do?

Stay in the fight!!

You have already made a reputation for yourself and the demons will leave you alone because you have stood up to them! I'll give you an example of a household that has fought this fight.

The Granger household consists of a husband and a wife with no children (yet). The husband has battled with Jezebel, who manifested in his wife, and after a few battles, Jezebel is leaving the husband and the wife alone. Although Jezebel grumbles that the husband is too smug for her tastes, and she wants to cut off his balls and stuff them down his throat, she is all talk because she has no stomach to fight this man anymore for his household.

THAT is where you want to be, Christian.

The husband has had to teach his wife about casting out demons and how to defend herself against attacks by using her Recompensatory prayers, which she has used to beat off the offenders. The wife, now emboldened because she has seen her husband deal with the demons that plagued her, was afraid at first; now, she is, in her own words, “folding the demons like a cheap suit and stuffing them into a trash can”. The wife overcame ALL fear of the demons that have plagued her since she was a child and now she is exerting HER authority as a member of a household that is in order and a marriage that is in order.

You see, when there is order, there is POWER, and the devil and his cohorts only recognize power. Do they have more power than you? You have an advocate in Jesus, as He will grant you the power and authority you need to continue the fight. Do what he tells you to do, and He will grant you the power you need plus more, if He feels you are worthy of it.

You do not have to be a preacher, or an apostle, or a bishop to continue the fight against the devil. You can take on roles that are important that you can comfortably do. As always, take this to the Lord and ask Him directly what you can do for Him.

Become a martyr

Another type of person who plays a role in the fight is one of a martyr. So what is a martyr?

A martyr is defined as:

1. a person who willingly suffers death rather than renounce his or her religion.
2. a person who is put to death or endures great suffering on behalf of any belief, principle, or cause:
3. a person who undergoes severe or constant suffering:

In the Bible, a martyr is defined as a witness.

You may say that a martyr is one that will give up his/her life for others willingly even if they get killed in the process. I would say that a martyr is akin to the Marines, as they storm the beaches and assault the enemy. The martyr corps will be the ones that will go back into the cities to rescue trapped saints of God when the devil cuts off all means of being able to escape when things collapse.

The martyrs are the ones that will assault the devil face to face, using weapons they have been specially trained to use. The martyrs know the score when they volunteer, and they are aware that every mission that they are sent on may be their last mission. They know that they can get killed at any time, and are willing to go where others are afraid to tread.

In the bible, most martyrs are killed by the enemy, but not before the martyrs inflict heavy damage to the devil's forces. The first martyr we read about is Stephen, and an account of his martyrdom is found in Acts Chapters 6 and 7. You can read about him in your own study time.

Notice how Jesus not only let Stephen get killed, as he was after Saul, who recorded this in Acts 22:20, but Stephen was a man who had great power and was full of the Holy Ghost (Acts 6:8). What did Stephen do that caused him to be brought up on charges that cost him his life? He proclaimed the gospel, healed the sick and cast out devils as Jesus has asked all of his disciples to do.

This is what I meant by being on the front lines. Stephen was unafraid to go and do the work that Jesus had for his disciples who was to confront the devil and use extreme prejudice to get those who the Lord wants out from the enslavement of the devil with POWER. He went into the belly of the beast unafraid and alone, and look what it took to bring him down.

I personally like Stephen and what he did. Stephen is the prototype of what a martyr will and can do. If Stephen alone did such a good job that the devil had to kill him, what do you think a whole corps of martyrs will do?

The devil so despised Stephen, he had him arrested on trumped up charges. During the trial, Stephen was so full of the Holy Ghost, that he actually glowed (Acts 6:15). I don't know about you, but THAT is the way I want to go when my time is up. Never mind the cowering bit; I want to step up to the devil boldly, stomp his guts out, shake the dust off my feet and then stomp his guts out again, just for good measure.

If you were ever in the military, and you have gone through the training, you would be a good fit for this job (even if you did not serve in the military, the Lord could use you if you ask Him). Not only will you get to fight the enemy face to face, hand to hand, up close and personal, you have a commander in Chief that is The Lord of Lords and King of Kings, and he does NOT forget the things that His Martyr corps does, unlike the armed services in America or wherever you are from. The martyr corps is the best of the best and full of the Holy Ghost. The devil most fears the martyr corps because of the power they have in Christ.

How do I know that the devil fears the martyr corps?

It is because the devil does not hesitate to kill them. You can see all throughout the book of Acts and Revelation that the martyrs are the ones that are killed.

Why?

The devil cannot stand up to the power that they have, so to save himself and his piddly little kingdom, the devil has them killed. The martyrs walk in and destroy the devil's kingdom, nuking everything and laying it to waste. The devil cannot stop them using his usual trickery, so he has them killed, usually by confederates who are religious.

In Revelations, you can see that the Harlot drinks the blood of the saints and the martyrs (Revelation 17:6). Why did the Lord make a distinction between the saints and the martyrs? It looks to me like the martyrs were more of a threat, as they normally destroy everything in sight that is demonic. Notice it is the Harlot, or the religious church, that is killing these people. We saw that in Stephen's time, and we will see it again during the end times.

Not everyone is cut out to be a martyr, but you can always ask Jesus to put you in His martyr corps or wherever He feels you would fit the best. If you like impossible missions against impossible odds, this is the place for you. As I said before, to all of the people who were in the military that were sent to hellholes like Afghanistan and Iraq, this is the place for you.

Get on your knees and ask and beg the Lord Jesus to clean you up for service. Ask him to train you in all of the weapons that are available to the martyr corps so you will be productive. Ask Jesus to clean you up so you are off of all of the 'chems' that the armed services give their members who are not useful to them anymore until they are discharged. If you do this, your PTSD will subside; you will also be able to get the blood of those you killed in the name of the military off of your hands so you will have peace.

You can then get your payback against the devil who was using you to bring over his hordes of demons to this realm using the death or sacrifice(s) of those you killed for the military, who care nothing about you. Look at the VA and then tell me I am wrong. The people you were fighting for has the military protect their pipelines and poppy fields so they can enslave more people with their drugs, and then they give you a medal for your service, even if you got hurt or injured during your service. This is a DIRTY deal that many have taken because that is the only deal they can get.

If you are going to fight, fight for a TRUE cause and kingdom. Ask Jesus to allow you into His corps.

Remember, the Lord of Hosts has sanctioned these books for YOUR edification, warts and all.

What we will do is to ask for a free-will offering to be given to the author for his time and energy to write this book, which is as follows:

2 Corinthians 9:7 - Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver.

If this book has been a blessing to you, then give an offering if you feel led to by the Lord of Hosts. If you do not want to give anything, that's fine too. I am NOT selling my books, Christian; I am giving them away as the Lord of Hosts has directed me.

I am NOT 'selling books' or 'selling the gospel'. The Lord of Hosts made it clear that the books should be available to everyone at NO cost.

For those of you who want to argue about the content of the book – don't waste your breath or your time. If you don't like the book, or the language, then delete the book and go about your business. Since I didn't sell the book to you, what do you care?

Go somewhere. I am pleasing the Lord of Hosts, not you.

Know that we will just ignore and throw away profane letters. You may disagree with us, but we will not stand for you cursing at us. That is boorish and rude.

We will do our best to get to all e-mails and letters as soon as we can. If you do send us a letter, please enclose an e-mail address so we can respond to you directly. We prefer to respond via e-mail, as there is no postage cost.

For any free-will offerings, address your offering to the author and send to:

I want to stress that we are NOT a church, nor are we a ministry, and we do not want to be either. All we are saying is that you, Christian, should take what you read from these books you can freely download and bring these topics up to the Lord Jesus Christ Himself and get your verification of what is being presented. It will be up to you to talk directly to Jesus personally and get the understanding of the things you have read from Jesus directly.

Many of the topics that are brought up should be taught in the Churches so you will know the Lord Jesus Christ and be ready for when things get a little hot down here on earth. If your church is not teaching you how to be in Order or how to stay in Order, get out of there and go to the Lord Jesus Christ directly and get him to send you the Holy Ghost so you can be properly taught. Being in Order is where the power is, Christian, and you need the Power of the Lord Jesus Christ to defeat the devil and free your family and yourself. Do not waste 30+ years of your life getting beat down by the devil when you can stand against him.
