

A personal testimony of why Once Saved, Always Saved is not true

I am a regular born-again, blood washed, Christian man, who is married, and who has been saved for many years. However, when I was first saved, I was assured that when I was saved, I was always saved and I could never lose my salvation.

Since I was ignorant, I went along with 'what they said to do' and got myself into a LOT of trouble doing things I should have never done. The devil was able to kick in my teeth, stomp on my feet, slap me upside the head and do whatever he wanted with me for 30+ years. Since I didn't know any better, I took it, like many of you are taking it right now. All the while, the devil was kicking my behind doing all of the nasty things he could. He would steal from me left and right, making me broke, making me sick, and put me in situations that would have damned me to hell if I had died, laughing at me all the while.

It was the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ (along with intercessory prayers from many people, some I knew, many I did not) that got Him to pull me aside one day and say, 'Follow me'. I had no idea what he was talking about, but, because I knew I was 'saved', I said 'OK' and followed Him. It was then the Lord Jesus Christ started to show me what I was doing wrong. I complained bitterly that I was ignorant, and how to fix what I was doing wrong is NOT being taught anywhere.

In His grace, the Lord Jesus Christ sent the Holy Ghost to me, and we started my journey into the wilderness where The Holy Ghost taught me personally.

- I had to repent for all of the heinous and evil things that I have ever done in my life;
- I had to renounce all evil associations that I spoke into existence with my own mouth;
- I had to learn how to pray and pray effectively;
- I had to learn how to forgive, as I would not be forgiven if I did not forgive. I did not know that MANY 'Christians' are in hell today because of unforgiveness.
- I had to repent and intercede for all of the people who I have ever hurt in my life.
- I had to repent of all of the lies I had ever told.
- The Holy Ghost showed me all of that plus why it was important for me to be brutally honest with Him about everything, good or bad.
- I learned that every word I have ever said – even under my breath – was being recorded and I would be held accountable for every word, just like the scripture tells us (Matthew 12:37).

The Holy Ghost Himself showed me that although I thought I was saved, I was not, and I was a hair's breath away from dying in sin, as a Christian, which would have sent me to HELL for eternity. He even named the situation that the devil set up that would have sent me to hell forever if I went along with it.

Of course, that got my attention. Well, so much for 'once saved, always saved'. I was walking away from my salvation and didn't even know it.

I do know that the Lord Jesus Christ saved me – twice – because He wanted to. Jesus did NOT have to save me – I want to make that clear. He could have just let me sin until I died, and I would have been very surprised when I was standing before Him being judged and then seized by a huge angel and cast into the pit of fire and brimstone – as a professing Christian.

A second chance

Jesus gave me a second chance. I can only guess at what went through His mind, but I have been a rebel all my life, and was not afraid to stand up to anyone if I thought I was right, and damn the consequences. I did not care.

After Jesus sat me down, I made it my business to find out all I could about fighting the devil, as I was sick and tired of his crap since he almost got me sent to hell. This is when I learned about God's order and authority. This is when I learned about walking IN Jesus, having a full and rich understanding of who He is and how He is, and not just knowing ABOUT Jesus.

As I got right with Jesus with the Holy Ghost's help, The Holy Ghost took me to see and meet The Lord of Hosts, Jesus' Father. He welcomed me as His son, just as it says in scripture (2 Corinthians 6:17). All I will say is that The Lord of the Universe has HUGE hands, and He is a HUGE being. You will have to find out the rest for yourself. It was the Lord of Hosts Himself that asked me to write these books, as He says it will help His children stop being victims and to stand up and fight. I wholeheartedly agree. By the way, I can tell you that Jesus is JUST like His Father.

We must do more than just confess

There are many people who are saying they are Christians that are not. There are also many people who say they are Christians that have made the 'sinner's prayer', thinking that they are saved and that they are automatically going to heaven when they die, no matter what they do. This is the 'once saved, always saved' crowd that is sending people to hell daily.

Why?

It is because when you make the confession and repent, you are commanded to pick up your cross and carry it DAILY by the Lord Jesus Christ (Luke 9:23). Many just stop at the confession and think that is it. Many think to themselves, 'OK, I sinned a little here when I had that orgy. God knows my heart and I'm covered because I let Jesus in my heart' and then go on about their business, not understanding that if you DIE IN YOUR SINS, you are damned.

1. Did you make the confession – YES.
2. Did you give your heart to the Lord – YES.
3. Does that give you a free pass? – NO!!

There are countless professing 'Christians' who are in hell TODAY because they did NOT follow or obey what Jesus asked of them. You think I am kidding? Try this on for size:

- How many professing 'Christian' women are harboring unforgiveness against that woman or man 35 years ago that slighted them? If you die harboring unforgiveness and you will NOT make it. What does the scripture say about that? (Mark 11:26).

- How many professing 'Christian' men who fornicated 40 years ago NEVER repented of this act? These are good 'Christian' men and they are in hell today because they 'forgot' to mention that to the Lord while they were alive and died with that sin attached to them. What does the scripture say about that? (2 Corinthians 12:21).
- How many professing Christians have lied to their children about Santa Claus and have NOT repented of the lies they told their children and die with that lie on their ledger? Do you really think that the Lord is going to 'wink' at that and let an unrepentant LIAR into His Kingdom? (The devil is a dirty dog, isn't he? He got you to believe that lie about Christmas). What does the scripture say about that? (Revelation 21:8).
- How many professing Christians continue to 'dress up' for Halloween when this is a celebration of the devil and die with that abomination on their ledger? Do you really think that the Lord is going to be happy with you when you celebrate and honour the devil and then expect to be in Heaven? What does the scripture say about that? (Matthew 6:24).
- How many professing Christians continue to go on Easter egg hunts that worship Astarte and Diana, two demon goddesses? What does the scripture say about that? (1 Kings 11:33, Acts 19:26-27).

Christian, scripture tells us that those who are in sin are in rebellion and they are the Enemy of God (James 4:4). He is angry with the rebellious all day and night long. You do NOT want to be the enemy of God, because you will lose. Look what happened at Korah, when an angry God turned His wrath on those who were in rebellion against Him. (Numbers chapter 16)

As you have just read, those in rebellion got a one-way express ticket to hell – they did not even pass GO!! The Lord opened up the EARTH and cast all of the rebellious men, their wives, children, cattle, even their tents – into hell and then closed up the ground.

The wages of sin is DEATH, Christian.

Once Saved, Always Saved will send you to Hell

Some of you 'Christians' out there are still engaging in this behavior, and this is an attempt to get your attention. If you have been told that you are 'Once Saved, Always Saved', and you think you can sin with fornication/adultery and still go to heaven because you have been told you can NEVER lose your salvation, you are in danger of being cast into Hell if you die in your sin, even if you are a 'Christian'. You think that you are saved and will make it into Heaven, but if you are a 'carnal Christian', you will NOT make it. The Lord will NOT let you in with ANY sin you did not get repentance for hanging on you.

Beware. You have been told.

There are MANY professing Christians out there who are fornicating left and right, thinking that when they get judged, that the Lord is going to give them a pass because they 'confessed' the Lord Jesus Christ as their Lord and Saviour. Understand, Christian, that if the Lord is your Saviour, he has the power to ACCEPT or REJECT you if you are being disobedient to Him. He can blot your name out of the book of life (Exodus 32:33, Deuteronomy 9:14, Deuteronomy 29:20), and that means you do NOT get to go to Heaven, which is HIS home.

(In Revelation 3:5, it is mentioned that he will NOT blot out your name from the book of Life if you endure to the end, but what of you do not endure to the end? It is inferred that he COULD blot your name out of the book of Life if you turn/walk away and don't finish the race.)

Yes, Christian. He will BLOT OUT your name so you will be damned.

Turn away from your carnal ways and repent. Cry out the Jesus and beg Jesus for forgiveness, as you were sinning in ignorance. Use some of the methods given in this book to get yourself washed and cleansed of your sin. This sin has gotten more 'Christians' hung up and in trouble than any other. You were misled by those who told you that you were once saved, always saved. Forgive them.

I'll make this VERY clear:

If you die in your sin, and you have not repented of any sin, Christian, you WILL be judged and found lacking, and you will find yourself, as a Christian, in hell.

Forever.

You cannot get into Heaven with sin on you

Do you think that the Lord is going to let YOU bring sin into HIS Kingdom, when He drove out Adam and Eve, putting Cherubim with flaming swords at the entrance of the garden of Eden to keep them from coming back into the garden (Genesis 3:24) for their sin?

C'mon, man.

Now is the time to examine your life and ask the Lord Jesus Christ to point out ALL of the things you need to repent of and get that done NOW before it is too late.

Yes, you are saved, but you CAN walk away from that salvation.

How?

- By NOT picking up your cross and following Him daily;
- by harboring unforgiveness and hatred in your heart;
- by NOT repenting of your sin, and
- by NOT obeying the Lord's commands, showing that you truly DO love Him by following and obeying His commands (John 14:15).

Christian, this is serious business down here. We have been railroaded because no one is being taught what the Lord is expecting of the Christian, and many who think they 'made it' are dying and are SHOCKED when the Lord says to them 'go away, you worker or lawlessness, I NEVER knew you.' (Matthew 7:23) We are to work out or salvation with fear and trembling (Philippians 2:12); that means we are to continually work at it to make ourselves pleasing to the Lord.

I can hear the argument now – 'You cannot work your way to Heaven' and you are right, you cannot. But you can turn away and walk away from your salvation by NOT following the dictates that the Lord Jesus Christ has given us. Here we have a free gift given freely by the Lord Jesus Christ, and the recipients of that gift could not even be bothered to even say thank you to the Lord (Luke 17:17) or to find out more about the one who gave the gift. They are like the multitude that was fed by the miracle of the fishes and loaves (Luke 9:16) and then disappeared when they got 'bored' with what Jesus was teaching. If Jesus fed 5000 people with 2 fishes and 5 loaves of bread, where did they all go?

That is only the BEGINNING of the journey.

You have to get to know the Lord Jesus Christ by spending time with Him. Choose life, Christian. Seek Him out and really KNOW him. Get up under his armpit and be a bother to him as you find out all you can about Him. Bug him day and night so you can be filled with the Holy Ghost so you will be found within the Body of Christ, trained by the Holy Ghost Himself.

So, Christian, choose life and get RIGHT with the Lord Jesus Christ. Use this book to start the conversation with the Lord and get it right while you still can.

Time is running out.
