Halloween is an IDOL to many people, and this needs to stop -
NOW

In my closing editorial for this special halloween edition, we did mix the articles on halloween with our articles on idols and idolatry. Did you know that celebrating halloween is considered idolatry? It is the celebration of the devil that the Lord abhors, and no one who professes to be a follower of Christ should be celebrating anyone or anything other than the Lord Jesus Christ.

Many people are in hell today because they ignored the warnings about halloween and ignorantly followed tradition along with the world. Many of you have done this in the past, and now you know better. Now you know that what 'they' say is usually NOT good for you nor your family.

Our posting this halloween has been very harsh, and it is no accident that we are talking about idols this month. Last Month, we talked about Lukewarm Christianity, and being Lukewarm goes hand in hand with following traditions of men. Halloween has been a 'holiday' that many look forward to because it is FUN. Unfortunately, FUN is what the devil uses to damn as many people as he can, and he has been very good at what he does.

Do you realize that 95% of the people who profess to be 'Christians' do NOT make it into the Kingdom of God? Now we know that this is the broad road that the Lord Jesus Christ was talking about, as many follow all sorts of doctrine and they then THINK that they will make it into Heaven. Sadly, the majority do NOT, and yes, even the people who you would least expect are in hell today.

Why is that?

Many are there because they would NOT give up their 'traditions'. Those traditions were more important to those people than the Lord Jesus Christ.

- Didn't Jesus Christ warn us that we have to put Him before everything and everybody?
- Didn't Jesus tell us that there will be variance between family members?
- Didn't Jesus warn us that we have to follow Him and ONLY Him to make it into the Kingdom of God?

Halloween is one of those traditions that many will not give up, and look what happens to them. By celebrating halloween, their allegiance is shifted from the Lord Jesus Christ to the devil, and all the while the people are having fun. These same traditions are passed down to their children, and then the children are cursed as they follow traditions blindly. Everyone reading this editorial has members of their family that are following some sort of tradition, and they are damning themselves and their children because of it.

This year, I had this site post a very stern warning about halloween, as the Lord is separating the wheat from the tares. It is this action that will cause many to be lost, as they would THINK they are of Christ and will be thrust out into the darkness. I have been mandated by the Lord Jesus Christ Himself to sound the warning and to let everyone who I run across that halloween is NOT OK with Him. He is asking me to post on this site along with other sites like this one to let the people know that He is NOT going to tolerate the celebration of halloween anymore from His people - the people who profess to follow Christ.

On this site, I have taken great pains to post articles that point out about covenants, ties, allegiances and other instruments of adjudication that you should be familiar with that were shown in our Law and Order series. You can see by 'following' someone, you are indeed cutting a covenant with them, giving allegiance to them, and then you are tied to them.

Can't you see that by this alone, if you break your covenant with the Lord Jesus Christ, you are giving yourself to a new entity that is NOT Jesus? When Jesus does judge you, can't you see that He ALWAYS sends people to the entity they are allied with?

This is why I have posts that rail against the Once Saved, Always Saved doctrine, and I publicly state that those who are under this doctrine are NOT Born Again and they are NOT followers of Christ, no matter what they think. These are the quintessential Lukewarm 'Christians' that we are targeting, as these people are unaware that they are NOT EVEN SAVED, as they are believing a lie. We also point out those churches that teach and promote the Once Saved, Always Saved doctrine, and you can bet that these are the same churches that are having a 'Christian halloween' celebration, not realizing that everyone attending - even the children - are damned because they are following the devil.

I sincerely hope that the strong language on our posts plus our articles on halloween and idols/idolatry will get you to reconsider what you are doing. Like I always have posted - don't take my word for anything; always run what you have heard and learned by the Lord Jesus Christ first and then do what He says to do.

If you haven't figured this out yet, I am posting articles that bring you to Jesus so you can talk with Him and build a relationship with Him. Many will not, as they follow their pastors and churches and exclude the Lord Jesus Christ.

That is a terrible mistake.

It would take you 5 minutes to ask Jesus if something is true or not.

- Do you mean to tell me that you don't have 5 minutes to ask Jesus Personally if what you have heard is true or not?
- As followers of Christ, don't you think that you should at LEAST ask Jesus if He approves of what you are doing?
- Do you not think that 5 minutes of your time will be enough to keep you on the path that Jesus put you on?

Instead of listening to pastors, we need to run everything by Jesus instead. From this point forth, we are going to challenge the readers of this site to check out what I have had posted with Jesus so you will not be deceived. Deception is running rampant down here, Christian, and now Jesus is holding us to a higher standard. We need to check out EVERYTHING that we have heard or seen, as the devil is making his move.

Stay safe out there, and get with Jesus and let HIM number you steps. Jesus can see the traps and snares that the devil has laid for you, and He will help you avoid them if you would just ASK Him to.
