

What we have posted this month
is just the tip of the iceberg, Christian,
as you GET IN THE FIGHT!!

This month, we have provided you with a lot of information. What we are going to show you is NOT for the faint of heart, Christian. All of this information is VITAL to the Body of Christ, and as you can see, we have provided more information in one month than many of you have gotten from church in 10 YEARS. This is NO JOKE, Christian, and these are things that you need to know so you can resist the devil as we have been commanded to do by the Lord Jesus Christ.

The worst thing you can do now is to sit in a church, Christian, as the war is about to break out. 98% of the people professing to be a 'Christian' have no idea of what to do if the devil slapped them upside the head right now. We plan to change all of that by posting this vital information that comes from the Lord Jesus Christ Himself. If you don't believe what you are reading, then ask Jesus yourself to see if what you see is true or not.

You see, Christian, I took it upon myself to ask Jesus directly about a LOT of things, and I was flabbergasted at the answers I got from Him. Jesus was cordial, and almost eager to give the information to me that I am posting on this website for the next 9 months. Yes, I have 9 months worth of information, and this is not even the good stuff. Jesus is a treasure trove of information that He freely gives to those who will ask Him. Here is an example of what I got from Jesus by just asking.

I asked Jesus what He would do about a man who sinned by lying to his children about Santa Claus. The scenario is where the man, after learning of Jesus for real and was walking with Jesus as Jesus commanded him, dies and is being judged by Jesus. Jesus sees that this man's ledger is clear except for one infraction which he did not repent of, which was lying to his children about Santa Claus during Christmas. I wanted to know if Jesus would help that man by asking questions that will elicit a response with asking for forgiveness and repentance. Remember that when you die, you have NO MORE CHANCES for repentance, and I wanted to know what Jesus would do. Here is His answer to me (Jesus Speaking):

- If the person being judged is righteous, I would most definitely ask a question regarding the infraction and then judge the answer by the intent of the answer, the condition of the heart, and my judgment of this person as to how well did he obey my commandments. Did this person grieve the Holy Ghost? Did I ever have to contend with this person? Did the person continue with this celebration (Christmas)? Did the person seek out the answers via the Holy Ghost, the scriptures and My Father? All of these factors are considered, and if I feel that this person truly repented, I would allow them in. I WOULD help this person even as I am judging them.
- If the person was lukewarm, there would be sufficient enough grounds for me to send him away on that alone. I would look at the heart and then the works they produced to make the decision. If I see lukewarmness that has NOT been dealt with I will not ask the questions and based on other factors in that person's life, they would be damned.

- If a person was ignorant of the laws that govern vows, oaths and the like, I WOULD ask the person directly and I would help them by questioning them. The answer given plus an overall judgment of the person's life will factor in if I will accept them into my Kingdom or not.
- If the person is rebellious, and I have always had to correct them, I would ask the question just to see what they would say. The overwhelming testimony against them would probably damn them anyway, but I am a righteous and FAIR judge, and I will make exceptions if I deem them necessary.

This is the kind of answer you get from Jesus when you sit with Him and talk with Him. Just from this exchange alone, you can see that Jesus does NOT like Christmas, so that should be a major clue right there to those of you who insist that Christmas is Jesus' birthday. He also does not like people who do not know Him. You can see that it is YOUR responsibility to seek Him out and to get with Him and talk with Him about things that are pertinent to your life.

From just this answer alone, I would be working to find out more about the laws of the Universe and how Jesus plans to judge me. I would also be asking the question 'Am I Lukewarm?', because I just saw in His answer that a Lukewarm Christian is DOOMED.

A short conversation like this one will garner you a LOT of information about a lot of things that is IN the Bible, but many people don't know because they are being spoon-fed sugar and put to sleep every Sunday and Wednesday night.

- Why don't we know more about how to fight the devil?
- Why are we NOT learning this in church?
- Why do we go to the church to find out answers when Jesus is available to answer ALL questions you may have?

In this study, as we go forward, you will learn how to not only resist the devil, but to stop him cold LEGALLY. Many so-called Christians are stomping around down here on earth and they know NOTHING about stopping the devil from kicking in your door, entering and putting his nasty hoofed feet on YOUR coffee table and will start to boss you around in your own home.

How crazy is that?

As with everything, take what you have read and ask Jesus to verify everything that has been posted. Then, use what you have learned and with Jesus' guidance, incorporate the things you have learned into your daily prayers and routine and you will immediately see that you can resist the devil. Now, all hell is going to break loose in your household, and that is because the devil and his minions do not want to leave the comfort of your home, as they have made your home a place for them to reside. They could care less about you!!

Pick up these tidbits, Christian, and then ask Jesus to prepare you so you can get in the fight!! This is the conflict that we are going to see down here very soon, and 99% of professing Christians are NOT going to be prepared.

Don't be one of them.

Next month's postings will be a doozy, Christian. Take what I have posted and ask Jesus to confirm that I was talking to Him and what I have posted is true. Sit with Jesus like I did and get information from Him that will blow your mind. You will see how infantile the churches are and their doctrines are foolishness compared to the Lord Jesus Christ, no matter how many degrees the pastor has. Jesus is NO JOKE, Christian. Get with Him today while there is still time.
