An update on how I am doing and a few tidbits that you need to consider

Editorial Epilog for October, 2021

It has been a few months since I have penned a closing editorial, and I want to give you an update on my health and a few other things that may be of interest to you. Know that before I got sick, I was a robust 308 lb man, built like a linebacker, that could bench 300lbs easily without even trying. I was very athletic and was a part of an international softball team that has played in England, Scotland and the Czech Republic. Needless to say, I was pretty fit and then I came down with pneumonia. For more information about what happened to me, you can read about it here.

Today (October, 2021), as far as my health is concerned, I am doing fine. I have gained 30 lbs of the 60 lbs I had lost when I was in the hospital, so I am not sickly and gaunt as I was. When I got out of the hospital, I was a mess! In fact, I almost died in the hospital, but it was the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ that is ensuring that I am here today.

Let it be known that I was ready to die, and when you are facing death, EVERYTHING changes. I had a checklist to make sure I was prayed up, repented up, and I had forgiven anyone and everyone I had a beef with. I repented of everything I could think of because I knew that I was going to stand in front of Jesus to be judged, and I wanted to be SURE I had everything in order - so I took great pains to make SURE all t's were crossed and all I's were dotted. If I had forgotten anything, I knew that Jesus would bring it up, and I had my answers set as to what I was going to say. It really helped to know what to expect when you are to be judged, so I was VERY ready(I have shared a lot of these concepts in posted articles here and here).

While I was doing all of that, Jesus spoke to me and said "It is NOT your time yet. I will let you know when it is your time."

It was at this point in time when Jesus laid out what He wants me to do with the remaining time I have left on earth, and this is something that EVERY true disciple or follower of Christ already knows. It is important to let you know that after that visitation, I have NO FEAR of dying, and what that has done was to strengthen my resolve. Now, I am bolder than I was before, and I don't care what the devil does because I know that I will be a thorn in his side while I am alive. Also, the devil CANNOT kill me without the Lord Jesus Christ's permission.

I have the advantage when going against the devil because I have NOTHING TO LOSE.

Many of the doctors that I saw after I got out of the hospital did NOT like me at all (They would ask me how I felt, and I would answer “I feel like stir-fried poo” and yes, I cleaned that up a LOT and I was NOT nice about it). There are still masses on my kidneys, and although my kidney functions are not 100%, I was in a fight with the doctors who wanted to rip my kidneys out and put me on dialysis. They could not give me a good reason why dialysis was a “good” thing, and they could not explain to me how my life would be BETTER without my kidneys.

Screw that.

I did get an MRI last month, and the masses have NOT grown at all.

The other fight I had was with the medications that I was given to take, and my poor wife fought me to take the medicines that were making me sick and semi-comatose. When I could, I would NOT take the medicines as the doctors prescribed because they were causing me to be that drooling idiot who is in the corner waiting for someone to attend to him. I decided that I would rather die than to be pumped full of medicines that would make me a medical invalid.

So, we (my wife and I) decided to get a 2nd opinion on what these doctors wanted to do to me. For the past 22 years (yes, I am giving away how old I really am) I was on blood pressure medicine and it was NOT helping me. My blood pressure is still quite high, according to what the doctors want to see, and most of the doctors are surprised that I am still walking around. One doctor told me that I would be dead in 6 months!!

What they did NOT know is that I am in a covenant with the Lord of Hosts, Jesus' Father, as I went to Him and asked Him to help me with my blood pressure. The Lord told me that He would manage my blood pressure if I would stop eating the garbage that I called food. I entered into that covenant almost 7 years ago, and I am still here.

So, I asked the doctor to isolate the cause of my hypertension. Of all of the doctors that I saw, NOT ONE would answer that question. They ALL said I needed to control my blood pressure and there were lots of pills that could take to do that. Well, I said, "I have been taking blood pressure pills for 22 years and I STILL have high blood pressure, so why would I want to continue doing what is not working?" Needless to say, the doctors were NOT happy with my question. I asked them point blank – how can we FIX this blood pressure issue, since I was told that NO anesthesiologist worth his salt would try to put me under with high blood pressure to remove the mass from my kidneys.

Again, no answer.

I was told that I had to “just live with” the side effects of the medicines they were giving me. Of course, you know me, I said: “so let me get this straight. You cannot (or will not) FIX the problem, so you want me to manage the problem until I die”? This is what the doctors told me was my fate.

Of course, I said OH HELL NO.

Needless to say, I did NOT believe them since I already had my covenant with the Lord of Hosts. I told all of them to “go somewhere” (actually, I told them to f-off, and yes, I was that angry) and I was going to deal with the issue myself. My wife was horrified that I talked to a medical doctor in that manner, but it is my life and my body, and I am not going to let some doctor decide what I was going to do with my body, especially when what they were prescribing was going to turn me into a drooling idiot.

So, we are looking for alternatives to deal with the blood pressure issue. One of the medicines that I was given had a side effect of giving me a headache, and my wife gave me one of those pills by accident. My wife was VERY afraid that I was not going to wake up, but I did the next day when the pill's effects wore off. I think that got my wife's attention, as she was afraid that she killed me with the drugs the doctors prescribed.

So, for now, I am taking supplements, and I do feel much better. My blood pressure is still high, but I am lucid and cogent and I don't miss anything. I am not moving as fast as I used to (I am not going to run a 4.8 40-yard dash anymore) but I am not a drooling invalid either. The doctors are afraid I am going to have a stroke, but I am not worried. I am kept alive by the Lord Jesus Christ to continue to kick the devil's big red behind while I am still alive and provide others with what they need to know and do to stand against the devil. I took the time to provide an update so you will know that those of us who are out here fighting the devil are paying a pretty heavy price to provide tips and articles and videos to show you what has been hidden from you in your churches.

If I die, I will die when the Lord Jesus Christ wants me to die (and I am quoting Him directly). When I was in the hospital, I did see things that were paranormal, and as I was in the hospital bed with my nitroglycerin and Lasix (diuretic) IV, I asked the Lord what I was seeing. In my field of vision, in the right hand corner, I saw some dots and bars – almost like Morse code – and I was told that those were markers that were used to record what was happening to me, so when I am judged by the Lord Jesus Christ, He will be able to bring those images back up and judge me on what I did at the time.

Those markers went away when I was able to get up and move around under my own strength.

Let it be known that the Lord has revealed quite a bit to me while I was helpless in the hospital, and although the doctors were plotting to remove my kidneys and pancreas, it was the Lord Jesus Christ that kept them at bay so I can be here to do the work that He wants me to do.

My heart is recovering - albeit VERY slowly – and I am able to do most work without being winded. As you may know, I was admitted into the hospital because I was having trouble breathing, and my blood saturation level was in the high 70's. That pneumonia that I had settled in my heart and was shredding my heart, diminishing its blood pumping capacity to 30%, but my heart is recovering (I think it is at 50-60% now).

I was supposed to have cardiac rehab, but that was delayed by the medical group that my doctors were a part of for 5 months because my nephrologist asked for the rehab instead of my cardiologist, who is an ass and butt-hurt because he didn't prescribe it. So, again, you know me – I said to the doctors “screw you!” (I cleaned that up a lot) and I started my OWN cardiac rehab without those idiots. It also helps when your wife has a sports medicine degree, so she designed my cardiac rehab (and it was not only wifely duty sex either) and I am progressing nicely.

So, that is my update. My bodily functions are working just fine, in spite of the high blood pressure, and I get VERY dizzy when the doctors tried to bring it down to “normal”. So, I am letting my blood pressure stay a little higher than normal, but I do need to take a diuretic to remove the water weight, which exercises my kidney functions. I get my cardio with my two Great Danes (yes, I have two) when we take them to the dog park to let them run around.

It has been a whole year since I got sick (I got sick with pneumonia in October, 2020) and I am still recovering. Again – if I didn't know the Lord Jesus Christ as I do, I would have been dead by now and you would not see all of this lovely content. I sincerely hope that you learned something from my plight, and know that any chance I have to kick the big red behind of the devil I am going to take it and keep kicking that big red behind until I cannot move anymore. Much of what I have had posted is what I have PERSONALLY gone through, and hopefully many of you who are on this website can take lessons from what I went through and get to know the Lord Jesus Christ for REAL.

Your very life may depend on it one day.

As you know from this website, I don't mince words and many are very upset with me because I allow and sanction some of the salacious things you see on this website. You have to understand that I do not publish ANYTHING without the permissions and authorization from the Lord Jesus Christ Himself, and some of you are not believing that Jesus authorized a lot of what I have had published.

That is OK, and I wouldn't have it any other way. You are NOT SUPPOSED to believe anything I say, post or write. You are supposed to check out what I have had posted and then build your OWN relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ and follow HIM, working out YOUR salvation with the Lord Jesus Christ with fear (reverence) and trembling (Philippians 2:12).

So, enough about me. What I want to really get across to you – the reader – is that the spirit of the antichrist has arrived, and if you are NOT standing against the devil, he is going to continue to steamroll everyone who he can overcome.

It is not an accident that the devil is forcing people to get “vaccinated”, and I am bringing this up AGAIN because it is important to know that the devil is in breach of universal laws as well as laws of the land. If the Lord Jesus Christ will not/does NOT force you to do anything, how can the devil force you to do anything when he doesn't have the power or authority that the Lord Jesus Christ has?

As you can see, the devil does not regard the laws at all, and he will NOT stop until someone stops him. The devil knows FULL WELL that he CANNOT force people to do things he wants them to do.

But – the devil is BLUFFING and he will continue to bluff until YOU call him on it and MAKE HIM STOP.

YOU.

Not your pastor, or President Trump, or the military - YOU.

Your compliance with the narratives and the edicts the devil is putting out there is what is enslaving you RIGHT NOW – and most of you don't even know it. This is why we spent the time to put up the articles and videos showing you how to stand up to the devil and make him flee from you.

What irks me the most is that the church is SUPPOSED to stand up and check the devil, but it has not.

- Why hasn't the church stepped up to resist the devil?
- Where are the pastors who are supposed to prepare their congregations for war?
- Why are the churches cowering in a corner and not kicking the living daylights out of the devil?
- Why is everyone so SCARED?

This is the reason why I am having these articles and techniques posted on the website, and it is so that YOU can get what the churches are NOT teaching you to protect your homes, households, families and marriages from the devil and his people.

Why aren't the pastors teaching their congregations how to fight the devil?

It is because the pastors are hirelings for the devil, and they have forsaken the Lord Jesus Christ for the 30 pieces of silver that the devil is giving them to lead the people who profess to be "Christians" astray. This is what is emboldening the devil to do what he wants when he wants, and he knows that NOBODY is going to stand up to him.

The Lord Jesus Christ is telling everyone who will listen that He will help those that are His – the disciples and followers of Christ whom He has accepted – to weather the very difficult times that are coming to the earth under the antichrist spirit. Many true disciples and followers of Christ will make it through these times because the Lord is going to help them. Those of you who go to church – professing to be "Christians" because some pastors said you were – are not going to be helped and they WILL perish under the antichrist rule.

It will also be these people who profess to be "Christian" that are going to turn on the TRUE disciples and followers of the Lord Jesus Christ and offer them up to the antichrist authorities, which will get them killed. Yes, it will be those who are church-hurt that will HATE the true disciples and followers of Christ and get them killed.

Let that sink in for a minute.

Those who are true disciples and followers of Christ will not even care because there is a crown of life that is laid up and waiting for those who are killed for Jesus' namesake. After staring death in the face myself, I am NOT afraid to die and I know that death has NOTHING on me. Many of you who don't feel that way now will do so if you keep hanging out with the Lord Jesus Christ.

I have articles on how the sodomites are going to rise up against the saints, and you can see this article here.

The next few months are going to be quite interesting, and you will see the antichrist spirit rise up and threaten more and more people.

- Will there be anyone who will stand up to this antichrist spirit?
- Will people just go along to get along and end up in a FEMA camp?
- Will people just allow the devil to steal from them and just grumble about it?
- Will people allow the devil to shut down their churches because of some stupid edict?
- Will the people just continue to believe the lies and DIE because of what the media tells them?
- When will the people WAKE UP and stand against this fool devil?

We will see, in the next few months, what will happen. Take the time to bookmark this website and learn how YOU can stand against the devil so he doesn't steamroll you with new edicts and mandates.

As always, don't take my word for anything. Go DIRECTLY to Jesus and get your confirmation from Him and then do as Jesus tells you. It is YOUR salvation that is on the line, and it is up to YOU to get as close to Jesus as you can and stay close to Him. I am doing what the Lord has asked me to do - Proclaim the Gospel and point people to Jesus. What you do after that is your business. Get with the Lord Jesus Christ directly, Christian, and get those questions answered as soon as you can. Get more tips on how to talk to the Lord directly here.
