

How Do I ... Set aside time for the Lord?

This article will give you some insight into what you can do to set aside time with the Lord. This time, also known as your 'Quiet' Time, will allow you to sit and tell the Lord what you need, ask questions, and then allow Him to respond to you. Once you get this down, you will want to spend more time with the Lord so you can learn and grow spiritually.

Putting aside time for the Lord daily

In this short article, we will give you a template that you may follow when you desire to talk to the Lord. You may use this template to customize the process as you see fit. This article will answer the question on HOW we are able to talk to the Lord.

So, let's get started, shall we?

First of all, let's let it be known that the Lord wants YOUR attention fully. You will need to turn off all cellphones, radios, CDs, and anything else that may be distracting you. You have to remember that the Lord will come and see you if YOU are ready for Him. He will summon you and want to talk to YOU without any distractions.

So, if you want to talk with the Lord Jesus Christ, or the Holy Ghost, or the Lord of Hosts, Jesus' Father, make the environment conducive for their visit. Be attentive; make sure that you give them your FULL attention and not be distracted by anything. This is also known as 'Your Quiet Time', and this is when the Lord will teach you, advise you, exhort you, or give you something that He wants you to do. The Lord will not be too happy with you if you interrupt Him because you get a phone call. You must ALWAYS remember that you are talking to a KING, an Ruler, and the Lord of Lords. Your attention to Him as He is dealing with you is important, and all things STOP when the Lord is talking to you. He may excuse you to let you go to the bathroom, but after that, you are to give the Lord your undivided attention.

Suggested Things you can do To put time aside for the Lord

First, it is suggested that you get a time when the Lord will meet with you. He may decide a time for you to meet with Him; it all depends on what He wants.

A lot of the time, the Lord will tell you what time He expects you to rise and when He will meet with you. When you are told, you will get up and meet the Lord at that time. At first, it will be a little hard to maintain, but after a while, you will be able to prepare your day for the Lord as He will expect you to be there waiting for Him on time.

The Lord may tell you that He wants you to rise at 2 am and that He will meet you in your prayer closet at 3 am. You will make the effort to get to be early and to get up at 2 am. The Lord does this for a reason, and the reason is that He wants you undisturbed, and He also wants you to get some discipline in your routine. When people come to the Lord for the first time, they are undisciplined and they do not have a routine. Like you would with a child, the Lord does require a person to adapt to and maintain a routine.

The time you will meet with the Lord all depends on you. For many, getting up early is something that they do naturally, and so getting up at 2 am instead of 5 am is nothing new. Expect to spend at least one hour a day getting your daily exhortation from the Lord, depending on the subject. If you are being taught something by the Holy Ghost, expect at least 2-3 hours, depending on the subject.

The only exception to this is for the Lord of Hosts, and He will tell you when you are going to meet Him, as He is running a universe. Many times, you will wait and be summoned by Him, and you will go when you are summoned. Now He MAY take some time to chasten and shape and mold you, and it would be at that time when you would be on a regular time interval with Him.

The Lord Jesus Christ, the Holy Ghost and the Lord of Hosts will be prepared for you if they want you to do something for them. As an example, the admin of this website was summoned by the Lord of Hosts, and He told the admin that He wanted the admin to start writing articles for people who did not know Him well. This is how this website was built, and the Lord of Hosts does keep a very close eye on what is posted. The website is supposed to be a little edgy and in-your-face, as many people are falling for the tricks of the devil and are being lulled to sleep.

It is an HONOUR to do work like this for the Lord, and the Lord of Hosts does set aside time out of His busy schedule to spend time with His children (that would be YOU reading this). He will give you an hour or so to talk about ANYTHING that you want to talk about, and He will chasten you at that time if it is needed. Many times, He will allow you to see into the spirit if He so chooses, so you can see and experience firsthand what He is all about.

The Lord of Hosts will tell you that He ALWAYS has time for His children, no matter what is going on. If you read in the Bible in Revelation, you will see that the Lord of Hosts Himself will have children crawling up on His throne with Him during the end of the Gentile age of grace. Those children would be us, Christian, and we will have our tears wiped away from this very same God who runs the universe. The magnitude of this is staggering!

Listen and learn from the Lord And the Holy Ghost

As you spend time with the Lord and the Holy Ghost, you will know their voices. You will know how they are and you will know when they are calling you. You will know how to call and ask for them.

This is like knowing your parent's voice when you were a child. There could be 20 parents standing around, yelling, talking and laughing, but you could ALWAYS tell YOUR parent's voice from the din. All they had to do was call your name, and through all of that noise, you could hear your parent and KNOW if they were upset with you or not.

Our advice for you is to sit and listen. The Godhead as a whole are EXCELLENT teachers, and they will help you in ways that you would not expect. For example, when the Holy Ghost first comes to you, He is VERY STERN, as He will need to get the filth of the world off of you. As you get to know Him, and you are taught by Him, He will not be as stern as you will be obedient and know Him. Know that the Holy Ghost does reward His students that are obedient and will do their best. We have seen where the Holy Ghost will actually petition Jesus for a person whom He has been teaching for special assignments.

We have also seen the Holy Ghost suggest vacations or time away for people that did not expect Him to do that.

In the time that is coming soon, the Holy Ghost will be guiding and leading many through the horrific situation that America will find itself in. Those who are obedient with the Holy Ghost will survive. Many will not survive because they do not know Jesus nor do they know the Holy Ghost. Spend the time NOW learning and being obedient and that will save you a whole lot of headache and heartache later on.

We hope that this short article will give you some insight into what to expect when you set time aside for the Lord. As always, do NOT take our word for anything. Call out to and talk to the Lord yourself and verify what we are telling you. Get to know Jesus for REAL personally and do not be afraid to ASK for the things you need.

Now it is up to you, Christian, to put into practice what you have read

Use these tips to start a relationship with Jesus. Reach out to Him and talk to Him about everything. You will be surprised at the responses you will get. You have to understand that Jesus knew you before you were born, so reconnect with Him and start talking with Him again in earnest.

You will be glad you did.

As always - don't take our word for anything. Go to the Lord Jesus Christ directly and personally ask Him if what is being posted is true or not, and go with that. Ask Jesus to show you what other things you can do to when you are being corrected. A lot of this sounds farfetched and incredible, but as you start on your walk with Jesus as His Disciple for real, you will find out very quickly that it is all about the relationship you have with Jesus, The Holy Ghost and the Lord of Hosts.
