

What does the symbol on the Israeli flag stand for?

This article will attempt to answer this question. We will look at some of the contending views and use scripture to make sure we have the correct interpretation.

The State of Israel Series

www.getyouranswersonline.com

What is that on the Israeli flag?

In this article, we will take a look at the symbols on the Israeli flag and find out what those symbols mean. Let's jump right into this, shall we?

Let's first find out what the symbols represent on the flag, From Wikipedia:

The flag of Israel (Hebrew: דגל ישראל Degel Yisra'el; Arabic: علم إسرائيل 'Alam Isra'īl) was adopted on 28 October 1948, five months after the establishment of the State of Israel. It depicts a blue hexagram on a white background, between two horizontal blue stripes. The Israeli flag legislation states that the official measurements are 160 × 220 cm. Therefore, the official proportions are 8:11. Variants can be found at a wide range of proportions, with 2:3 being common.

The blue colour is described as "dark sky-blue", and varies from flag to flag, ranging from a hue of pure blue, sometimes shaded almost as dark as navy blue, to hues about 75% toward pure cyan and shades as light as very light blue. The flag was designed for the Zionist Movement in 1891. The basic design recalls the Tallit (טלית), the Jewish prayer shawl, which is white with black or blue stripes. The symbol in the center represents the Star of David (Magen David, מַגֵּן דָּוִד), a Jewish symbol dating from late medieval Prague, which was adopted by the First Zionist Congress in 1897. In 2007, an Israeli flag measuring 660 m × 100 m (2,170 ft × 330 ft) and weighing 5.2 tonnes (5.7 short tons) was unfurled near the ancient Jewish fortress of Masada, breaking the world record for the largest flag.

The blue stripes are intended to symbolize the stripes on a tallit, the traditional Jewish prayer shawl. The portrayal of a Star of David on the flag of the State of Israel is a widely acknowledged symbol of the Jewish people and of Judaism. The Israelites used a blue coloured dye called tekhelet; this dye may have been made from the marine snail Murex trunculus. This dye was very important in both Jewish and non-Jewish cultures of this time, and was used by royalty and the upper class in dyeing their clothing, sheets, curtains, etc. (The dye from a related snail can be processed to form Tyrian purple called argaman.)

In the Bible, the Israelites are commanded to have one of the threads of their tassels (tzitzit) dyed with tekhelet; "so that they may look upon it, and remember all the commandments of the LORD, and do them (Num 15:39)." Tekhelet corresponds to the colour of the divine revelation (Midrash Numbers Rabbah xv.). Sometime near the end of the Talmudic era (500–600 CE) the industry that produced this dye collapsed. It became more rare; over time, the Jewish community lost the tradition of which species of shellfish produced this dye. Since Jews were then unable to fulfil this commandment, they have since left their tzitzit (tallit strings) white. However, in remembrance of the commandment to use the tekhelet dye, it became common for Jews to have blue or purple stripes woven into the cloth of their tallit.

Really?

Does it say Hexagram?

Let's find out more about that star from Wikipedia:

The Star of David (✧), known in Hebrew as the Shield of David or Magen David (Hebrew מגן דָּוִד; Biblical Hebrew Māgēn Dāwīd [ma:'ye:n da:'wi:ð], Tiberian [mɔ'ye:n dɔ'vi:ð], Modern Hebrew [ma'gen da'vid], Ashkenazi Hebrew and Yiddish Mogein Dovid ['mɔgeɪn 'dɔvid] or Mogen Dovid), is a generally recognized symbol of modern Jewish identity and Judaism. Its shape is that of a hexagram, the compound of two equilateral triangles. Unlike the menorah, the Lion of Judah, the shofar and the lulav, the Star of David was never a uniquely Jewish symbol, although it had been used in that way as a printer's colophon since the sixteenth century.

During the 19th century the symbol began to proliferate among the Jewish communities of Eastern Europe, ultimately being used among the Jewish communities in the Pale of Settlement. A significant motivating factor, according to scholar Gershom Sholem, was the desire to represent Jewish religion and/or identity in the same manner the Christian cross identified that religion's believers. The earliest Jewish usage of the symbol was inherited from medieval Arabic literature by Kabbalists for use in talismanic protective amulets (segulot) where it was known as a Seal of Solomon. The symbol was also used in Christian churches as a decorative motif many centuries before its first known use in a Jewish synagogue. Before the 19th century, official use in Jewish communities was generally known only in the region of today's Czech Republic, Austria and possibly parts of Southern Germany, having begun in medieval Prague.

The symbol became representative of the worldwide Zionist community, and later the broader Jewish community, after it was chosen as the central symbol on a flag at the First Zionist Congress in 1897.

The identification of the term "Star of David" or "Shield of David" with the hexagram shape dates to the 17th century. The term "Shield of David" is also used in the Siddur (Jewish prayer book) as a title of the God of Israel.

Ah, I see. That star is the 'Star of David' or the 'Magen David'. That's interesting because not only does it look like a hexagram, it was defined as such. Let's see what a hexagram is. From Wikipedia:

A hexagram (Greek) or sexagram (Latin) is a six-pointed geometric star figure with the Schläfli symbol $\{6/2\}$, $2\{3\}$, or $\{\{3\}\}$. Since there are no true regular continuous hexagrams, the term is instead used to refer to the compound figure of two equilateral triangles shown to the right. The intersection is a regular hexagon.

The hexagram is part of an infinite series of shapes which are compounds of two n-dimensional simplices. In three dimensions, the analogous compound is the stellated octahedron, and in four dimensions the compound of two 5-cells is obtained.

It is used in historical, religious and cultural contexts, for example in Hanafism, Judaism, Hinduism and occultism. The hexagram, like the pentagram, was and is used in practices of the occult and ceremonial magic and is attributed to the 7 "old" planets outlined in astrology.

The six-pointed star is commonly used both as a talisman and for conjuring spirits and spiritual forces in diverse forms of occult magic. In the book The History and Practice of Magic, Vol. 2, the six-pointed star is called the talisman of Saturn and it is also referred to as the Seal of Solomon. Details are given in this book on how to make these symbols and the materials to use.

Double hexagram.

Traditionally, the Hexagram can be seen as the combination of the four elements. Fire is symbolized as an upwards pointing triangle, while Air (its elemental opposite) is also an upwards pointing triangle, but with a horizontal line through its center. Water is symbolized as a downwards pointing triangle, while Earth (its elemental opposite) is also a downwards pointing triangle, but with a horizontal line through its center. When you combine the symbols of Fire and Water, a hexagram (six-pointed star) is created. The same follows for when you combine the symbols of Air and Earth. When you combine both hexagrams, you get the double-hexagram. Thus, a combination of the elements is created.

In Rosicrucian and Hermetic Magic, the seven Traditional Planets correspond with the angles and the center of the Hexagram as follows, in the same patterns as they appear on the Sephiroth and on the Tree of Life. Saturn, although formally attributed to the Sephira of Binah, within this frame work nonetheless occupies the position of Daath.

Well, we see that there is more to this than the eye can see. So here is the question – why is a hexagram, that is used in magic rituals, the symbol of a country? Let's take a little closer look at this hexagram and what it does. From Wikipedia:

The six-pointed star is commonly used both as a talisman and for conjuring spirits and spiritual forces in diverse forms of occult magic. In the book The History and Practice of Magic, Vol. 2, the six-pointed star is called the talisman of Saturn and it is also referred to as the Seal of Solomon.

Since we are led there, let's see what this Seal of Solomon is all about – from Wikipedia:

The Seal of Solomon (or Ring of Solomon; Arabic: خاتم سليمان Khātām Sulaymān) is the signet ring attributed to King Solomon in medieval Jewish tradition and in Islamic and Western occultism. It was often depicted in either a pentagram or hexagram shape; the latter also known as the Star of David in Jewish tradition.

This ring variously gave Solomon the power to command demons, jinn (genie), or to speak with animals. Due to the proverbial wisdom of Solomon, his signet ring, or its supposed design, it came to be seen as an amulet or talisman, or a symbol or character in medieval and Renaissance-era magic, occultism, and alchemy.

In Islamic eschatology, the Beast of the Earth is equipped with both the Staff of Moses and the Seal of Solomon and uses the latter to stamp the nose of the unbelievers.

The date of origin legends surrounding the Seal of Solomon is difficult to establish. It is known that a legend of a magic ring with which the possessor could command demons was already current in the 1st century (Josephus 8.2 telling of one Eleazar who used such a ring in the presence of Vespasian), but the association of the name of Solomon with such a ring is medieval notwithstanding the 2nd century apocryphal text the Testament of Solomon. The Tractate Gittin (fol. 68) of the Mishnah has a story involving Solomon, Asmodeus, and a ring with the divine name engraved.

The hexagram or "Star of David", which became a symbol of Judaism in the modern period and was placed on the flag of Israel in 1948, has its origins in 14th-century depictions of the Seal of Solomon. In 1354, King of Bohemia Charles IV prescribed for the Jews of Prague a red flag with both David's shield and Solomon's seal, while the red flag with which the Jews met King Matthias of Hungary in the 15th century showed two pentagrams with two golden stars.

Peter de Abano's Heptameron (1496) makes reference to the "Pentacle of Solomon" (actually a hexagram drawn on the floor in which the magician has to stand) to invoke various demons.

Lippmann Moses Büschenthal (d. 1818) wrote a tragedy with the title Der Siegelring Salomonis ("the signet-ring of Solomon"). An "Order of the Seal of Solomon" was established in 1874 in Ethiopia, where the ruling house claimed descent from Solomon.

What distinguishes a Seal of Solomon from a Star of David is the two triangles are interlaced giving the appearance of a 3-dimensional figure. This was said in the Testament of Solomon to make demons confused and dizzy, unable to do Solomon any harm.

Having a hexagram out in the open like that cannot be a good thing

The definitions just given, that are freely available on the internet that will take you less than 10 minutes to find, should be disturbing. Who decided that one of witchcraft's most powerful symbol should be on a flag?

What is even more surprising, we have all of the Israelis and many Christians running around flying this flag with this symbol on it.

Most other nations have striped flags, flags with stars, flags with a shield or an eagle on it; this one has a symbol of witchcraft. Do you really think, Christian, that the Lord Jesus Christ will have ANYTHING to do with the occult? Do you really think that the Lord Jesus Christ wants you, as a 'Christian', to mix light (which is Jesus) with dark (which is the occult)?

What did the Lord say about messing about with witchcraft? Let's take a look:

1 Samuel 15:23 - For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry. Because thou hast rejected the word of the LORD, he hath also rejected thee from being king.

2 Chronicles 33:6 - And he caused his children to pass through the fire in the valley of the son of Hinnom: also he observed times, and used enchantments, and used witchcraft, and dealt with a familiar spirit, and with wizards: he wrought much evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.

Galatians 5:19-21 - Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies, Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

So, what have we learned?

- witchcraft is as the sin of rebellion;
- witchcraft working/messing about with witchcraft is a sin;
- We can see from the 2nd example that witchcraft angers the Lord;
- witchcraft will bring evil;
- And lastly, we see that witchcraft is a work of the flesh;
- and those who do the works of the flesh will NEVER see the Kingdom of God.

We have 6 very important points that the Lord gives us in His Word that tells us to STAY AWAY from witchcraft and anything to do with witchcraft.

- So what makes you think that Israel is 'godly'?
- How can you justify these people are 'God's chosen' when they are doing everything they can to piss the Lord of Hosts off?
- Why are 'Christians' sending money to Israel for anything?
- Why are 'Christians' wearing hexagram pendants and jewelry in 'support' of Israel?

Didn't the Lord tell us that light and dark cannot commune with each other? See Scripture:

John 12:46 - I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness.

2 Corinthians 6:14 - Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness?

This is where you open your eyes, Christian, and see that everything about Israel is dark and darkness, especially if they have a hexagram on their flag. Many of you are looking at these articles and are in disbelief. Why have you not seen this before? What is going on that you could not see this coming?

We will submit to you that your mind has been blinded to the truth, and you have been fed a LIE that you believed. What does scripture has to say about a blinded mind?

2 Corinthians 4:3-4 - But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost: In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them.

Now you know why.

Who is the god of this world?

Satan is.

- Now you know who controls Israel.
- Now you know why most Israelis HATE the Lord Jesus Christ.
- Now you know why it will be Israel that ushers in the antichrist.
- Now you know why Israel does it dirty work and gets away with it.

This is not just some opinion, Christian. What you have in Israel is a country that is evil to the core. What you have is a country that is empowered by Satan himself.

Through Israel and the Jews, who HATE Jesus, the world is being set for the Antichrist

Take a look around you, Christian.

- Can't you see that there are Jews who control the media, control the entertainment industry, and control all of the money in the world?
- Can't you see that Israel gets 7-9 BILLION dollars of American tax money every YEAR?
- Can't you see that imbedded in congress there are Israeli-American dual citizens that look out for Israel's interests more than they do American Interests?

All of these entities are controlled by Satan himself.

- He uses his news media to brainwash you, telling you what he wants you to know, repeating it over and over so it will become a part of you. Do you think CNN – the all-news network - is an accident?

- He uses his music to turn your children into animals by having them pump rap and heavy metal into their ears day in and day out, using the beats and the music to bewitch your children turning them into brain dead morons.
- He uses his government to manage schools so he can indoctrinate your children with his perverse spirit to learn what he wants them to learn, turning them into zombies that can barely speak coherently.
- He fills their heads with perverse ideas that they exercise in real time..
- He uses his movies to give you a fantasy world to escape to, and makes you pay for it (which is incredulous).
- He paints pictures that are alluring so people will want to escape reality.
- He uses his videos and computers to pump porn into every household in the world, opening portals
- he has he has his 'actors' perform oral and anal sex on television and movies, allowing the demons in those portals to stream in and overtake households.
- He enslaves young men and women with masturbation and same gender sex that has been promoted on television programs and movies, getting them filled with demons that he controls.

And we wonder why we are living in HELL right now?

Now, before you go on saying that Israel did NOT do all of this, you are right – Israel did not, but the Jews who support Israel financially do.

- How many Jews are in charge of the porno companies?
- How many Jews are in charge of the media companies?
- How many Jews are in charge of the record and music labels?
- How many Jews are in charge of making sure Israel gets her cut from YOUR taxes?

This is the time to wake up, Christian, and realize that you have all of this going on around you – all of this evil – and if you do NOT know the Lord Jesus Christ, you are unarmed and unable to resist the onslaught that the devil has cooked up for you and the rest of the human race.

Now you know why these people are wealthy – Satan is rewarding them for their obedience to him, and that obedience brings slavery and bondage to you as you sit there and let the devil run all over you. You are being prepared for the Antichrist, Christian, and unless you get with the Lord Jesus Christ for real, you will NOT be able to resist the mark that the beast is going to require.

In an odd sort of way, we have no issues with any of the Jews who are successful in what they are doing, no matter if it is media, music, porno, government or whatever they are doing. We say GOOD!! We are glad that they are very good at what they do. We encourage them to continue to do what they do, and enjoy the money that the devil is giving them.

We are NOT hating on the Jews for being the BEST they can be.

- What we ARE hating on are those who call themselves a 'Christian', as they walk around in all this, oblivious & blind as a bat.
- What we are hating on are those churches that are dead and do NOT prepare their people for anything.
- What we are hating on is the fact that pastors have sold out their congregations, taking their money - for nothing.
- What we are hating on is the fact that most of you in church have no idea as to what is going on around you.
- What we are hating on is the fact that those in church are brain -dead and are falling for the okie-doke.

We do NOT blame the Jews for doing what they do. We sincerely hope that they are even more successful in the future. However, this article is NOT to laud the Jews or castigate a brain-dead Christian populace; all we are to do is to point out the obvious and point everyone to Jesus.

What we have uncovered is NOT pretty, Christian, and many of you will turn your head and ignore what you just read, and hoping that what was shown will just go away.

No. It will not.

We sincerely hope that you will take heed and go and find Jesus as soon as you can and talk to Him about what you have learned. Talk to Him about what He wants for you. You do NOT have to always take the devil's sloppy seconds.