

Israel Says...

They Say: The symbol on the flag is the ‘Star of David’

We Say: The symbol on the flag is a hexagram, an occult symbol of witchcraft

Let’s find out more about that ‘Star of David’ from Wikipedia:

The Star of David (✧), known in Hebrew as the Shield of David or Magen David (Hebrew מגן דָּוִד; Biblical Hebrew Māgēn Dāwīd [maːˈʕeːn daːˈwiːð], Tiberian [mɔˈʕen dɔˈvið], Modern Hebrew [maˈgen daˈvid], Ashkenazi Hebrew and Yiddish Mogein Dovid [ˈmɔgeɪn ˈdɔvid] or Mogen Dovid), is a generally recognized symbol of modern Jewish identity and Judaism. Its shape is that of a hexagram, the compound of two equilateral triangles. Unlike the menorah, the Lion of Judah, the shofar and the lulav, the Star of David was never a uniquely Jewish symbol, although it had been used in that way as a printer's colophon since the sixteenth century.

During the 19th century the symbol began to proliferate among the Jewish communities of Eastern Europe, ultimately being used among the Jewish communities in the Pale of Settlement. A significant motivating factor, according to scholar Gershom Sholem, was the desire to represent Jewish religion and/or identity in the same manner the Christian cross identified that religion's believers. The earliest Jewish usage of the symbol was inherited from medieval Arabic literature by Kabbalists for use in talismanic protective amulets (segulot) where it was known as a Seal of Solomon. The symbol was also used in Christian churches as a decorative motif many centuries before its first known use in a Jewish synagogue. Before the 19th century, official use in Jewish communities was generally known only in the region of today's Czech Republic, Austria and possibly parts of Southern Germany, having begun in medieval Prague.

The symbol became representative of the worldwide Zionist community, and later the broader Jewish community, after it was chosen as the central symbol on a flag at the First Zionist Congress in 1897.

The identification of the term "Star of David" or "Shield of David" with the hexagram shape dates to the 17th century. The term "Shield of David" is also used in the Siddur (Jewish prayer book) as a title of the God of Israel.

Ah, I see. That star is the 'Star of David' or the 'Magen David'. That's interesting because not only does it look like a hexagram, it was defined as such. Let's see what a hexagram is. From Wikipedia:

A hexagram (Greek) or sexagram (Latin) is a six-pointed geometric star figure with the Schläfli symbol  $\{6/2\}$ ,  $2\{3\}$ , or  $\{\{3\}\}$ . Since there are no true regular continuous hexagrams, the term is instead used to refer to the compound figure of two equilateral triangles shown to the right. The intersection is a regular hexagon.

The hexagram is part of an infinite series of shapes which are compounds of two  $n$ -dimensional simplices. In three dimensions, the analogous compound is the stellated octahedron, and in four dimensions the compound of two 5-cells is obtained.

It is used in historical, religious and cultural contexts, for example in Hanafism, Judaism, Hinduism and occultism. The hexagram, like the pentagram, was and is used in practices of the occult and ceremonial magic and is attributed to the 7 "old" planets outlined in astrology.

The six-pointed star is commonly used both as a talisman and for conjuring spirits and spiritual forces in diverse forms of occult magic. In the book The History and Practice of Magic, Vol. 2, the six-pointed star is called the talisman of Saturn and it is also referred to as the Seal of Solomon. Details are given in this book on how to make these symbols and the materials to use.

Traditionally, the Hexagram can be seen as the combination of the four elements. Fire is symbolized as an upwards pointing triangle, while Air (its elemental opposite) is also an upwards pointing triangle, but with a horizontal line through its center. Water is symbolized as a downwards pointing triangle, while Earth (its elemental opposite) is also a downwards pointing triangle, but with a horizontal line through its center. When you combine the symbols of Fire and Water, a hexagram (six-pointed star) is created. The same follows for when you combine the symbols of Air and Earth. When you combine both hexagrams, you get the double-hexagram. Thus, a combination of the elements is created.

In Rosicrucian and Hermetic Magic, the seven Traditional Planets correspond with the angles and the center of the Hexagram as follows, in the same patterns as they appear on the Sephiroth and on the Tree of Life. Saturn, although formally attributed to the Sephira of Binah, within this frame work nonetheless occupies the position of Daath.

Well, we see that there is more to this than the eye can see. So here is the question – why is a hexagram, that is used in magic rituals, the symbol of a country? Let's take a little closer look at this hexagram and what it does. From Wikipedia:

The six-pointed star is commonly used both as a talisman and for conjuring spirits and spiritual forces in diverse forms of occult magic. In the book The History and Practice of Magic, Vol. 2, the six-pointed star is called the talisman of Saturn and it is also referred to as the Seal of Solomon.

The definitions just given, that are freely available on the internet that will take you less than 10 minutes to find, should be disturbing. Who decided that one of witchcraft's most powerful symbol should be on a flag?

What is even more surprising, we have all of the Israelis and many Christians running around flying this flag with this symbol on it.

Most other nations have striped flags, flags with stars, flags with a shield or an eagle on it; this one has a symbol of witchcraft. Do you really think that the Lord Jesus Christ will have ANYTHING to do with the occult? Do you really think that the Lord Jesus Christ wants you, as a 'Christian', to mix light (which is Jesus) with dark (which is the occult)?

What did the Lord say about messing about with witchcraft? Let's take a look:

1 Samuel 15:23 - For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry. Because thou hast rejected the word of the LORD, he hath also rejected thee from being king.

2 Chronicles 33:6 - And he caused his children to pass through the fire in the valley of the son of Hinnom: also he observed times, and used enchantments, and used witchcraft, and dealt with a familiar spirit, and with wizards: he wrought much evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.

Galatians 5:19-21 - Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies, Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

So, what have we learned?

- witchcraft is as the sin of rebellion;
- witchcraft working/messing about with witchcraft is a sin;
- We can see from the 2nd example that witchcraft angers the Lord;
- witchcraft will bring evil;
- And lastly, we see that witchcraft is a work of the flesh;
- and those who do the works of the flesh will NEVER see the Kingdom of God.

We have 6 very important points that the Lord gives us in His Word that tells us to STAY AWAY from witchcraft and anything to do with witchcraft.

- So what makes you think that Israel is 'godly'?
- How can you justify these people are 'God's chosen' when they are doing everything they can to piss the Lord of Hosts off?
- Why are 'Christians' sending money to Israel for anything?
- Why are 'Christians' wearing hexagram pendants and jewelry in 'support' of Israel?

Didn't the Lord tell us that light and dark cannot commune with each other? See Scripture:

John 12:46 - I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness.

2 Corinthians 6:14 - Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness?

This is where you open your eyes, Christian, and see that everything about Israel is dark and darkness, especially if they have a hexagram on their flag. Many of you are looking at these articles and are in disbelief. Why have you not seen this before? What is going on that you could not see this coming?

We will submit to you that your mind has been blinded to the truth, and you have been fed a LIE that you believed. What does scripture has to say about a blinded mind?

2 Corinthians 4:3-4 - But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost: In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them.

Now you know why.

Who is the god of this world?

Satan is.

- Now you know who controls Israel.
- Now you know why most Israelis HATE the Lord Jesus Christ.
- Now you know why it will be Israel that ushers in the antichrist.
- Now you know why Israel does it dirty work and gets away with it.

This is not just some opinion, Christian. What you have in Israel is a country that is evil to the core. What you have is a country that is empowered by Satan himself.

So, to answer the question about the Israeli flag – it is EVIL, as this is the flag that represents the State of Israel. If the Standard or flag is evil, then, logically speaking, the state is evil.

What the Zionists are telling you about Israel is NOT TRUE.

It was Mayer Rothschild that had the Israelis in 1948 put the hexagram on the flag, as this was HIS seal. The symbol of Israel should be the menorah, as this was the symbol of the Hebrews and the Children of Israel in the past. As you already know, the House of Rothschild is evil, and these people are Satanists (devil worshippers) and they are doing things to prepare the world for THEIR king, who is none other than Satan himself.
