

Kingdom Law Legal Vocabulary:

Promises

A promise is defined as:

1. a declaration that something will or will not be done, given, etc., by one:
2. an express assurance on which expectation is to be based:
3. something that has the effect of an express assurance; indication of what may be expected.

This is how the Lord handles promises:

When the Lord makes a promise, He will keep His word as His word is His bond. If the Lord makes a promise, you can be assured that He will fulfill what He has promised. The Lord has made many promises, and He has kept all of his promises.

Some of the promises that the Lord makes are conditional upon the receiving party keeping their end of the bargain. This is prevalent in the promises made to those who believe upon the Lord Jesus Christ pertaining to salvation and eternal life. The promise that a person can receive eternal life is conditional that they continue to follow Jesus and do as He has asked of them.

A promise has the weight and power of a vow, although the promise can be rescinded if it is necessary by the Lord of Hosts Himself. If the Lord makes a promise, there is no obligation for the receiving party except in the case of conditional promises. The promises are fulfilled when all of the terms of that promise have been handled.

Promises made by the Lord that pass any conditions that may be put on the promises are guaranteed by the Lord personally, and a person receiving the promise can expect that what was promised will be fulfilled. A person may claim the promise(s) made as their own, if they fulfill any conditions that the promise may have. Any promise claimed will be examined by the Lord Himself and He will grant that whatever is promised is delivered to the person He made a promise to.

Here is Our Challenge to all of you:

We challenge you to go to Jesus directly RIGHT NOW and ask Him if what is shown here is true. Use this as a means to start a conversation with The Lord Jesus Christ and sit with Him and ask Him questions. Start with (asking out loud):

“Jesus, is what I just read true?”

He will answer you, Christian; use this as an opportunity to start the conversation with the Lord Jesus Christ. Keep talking with Him. Get to know Him and He will start to reveal Himself to you.

You need to find out for yourself if what you support or believe is true, and what better way to find out than to ask the Lord Himself? You need to find out for yourself and work out YOUR salvation for YOU, as the scriptures tell us to.
