

Kingdom Law Legal Vocabulary:

Requests

A Request is defined as:

noun

1. the act of asking for something to be given or done, especially as a favor or courtesy; solicitation or petition:
2. an instance of this:
3. a written statement of petition:
4. something asked for:
5. the state of being asked for; demand.

This is how the Lord handles Requests:

If your prayer is a request, then the Lord will categorize your prayer as urgent, important, as needed, or can wait. If the request is urgent, as if you need someone to help you if you are being held by knife point or being shot at, then the Lord will take the request, and answer it.

After the answer has been determined, then the request is given to an angel who will fulfill the request. In the case of you being held by knife point, the request is given to your guardian angel and he moves down to deal with the threat. In this case, the threat may be a demonic spirit, and that angel goes down and contends with the spirit so you can be freed. Once the request has been fulfilled, the Lord will tell you that He has answered your prayer.

All other requests are made into petitions and they are answered by whoever wishes to answer the prayer. In the case of requests, it is usually the person praying asking for something, and the Lord will determine if He will answer it right away or not. The Lord will then prioritize the petitions and He will answer them in the order of important to can wait.

- If the request is not important, He will process the more important ones first, and then He will get to the least important. Once the petition has been answered the petition is given to an angel who will go and fulfill the petition.
- If the petition is for resources, those resources may be dispatched in many ways. If it is for money, you will get your money in ways as the Lord sees fit. You may get an anonymous box in the mail with all that you need in it, and that is because the Lord has asked one of His children to send you money or to send you the things you need.

Many of the resource petitions are handled in this manner, as the Lord does use His people to help others who are in need. This is why the Lord says He loves a cheerful giver, and He does. He can count on you to have what is needed and you send it to where he tells you right away, no questions asked. This is how you can be a blessing to others, which will go on your ledger so when you are judged, Jesus can see that you were obedient to His Father, which would please Him greatly.

Here is Our Challenge to all of you:

We challenge you to go to Jesus directly RIGHT NOW and ask Him if what is shown here is true. Use this as a means to start a conversation with The Lord Jesus Christ and sit with Him and ask Him questions. Start with (asking out loud):

“Jesus, is what I just read true?”

He will answer you, Christian; use this as an opportunity to start the conversation with the Lord Jesus Christ. Keep talking with Him. Get to know Him and He will start to reveal Himself to you.

You need to find out for yourself if what you support or believe is true, and what better way to find out than to ask the Lord Himself? You need to find out for yourself and work out YOUR salvation for YOU, as the scriptures tell us to.
