

Salvation Explained: The Kingdom of God is Jesus' Home

This section looks at Heaven which is Jesus' home. We also look at some pretty common sense things that you would expect from someone inviting you into their home. Many people are offended by the process of Salvation, but as you look at it, the process makes perfect sense. We explore this and refute all doctrines of people who are not prepared or ready for the Kingdom of God.

The Salvation Explained Series

WARNING!!!

We will warn you that what we are presenting is going against the doctrinal teachings of many denominations. Many are going to excoriate this site because we are not following their doctrine. Many times, the people who are going to say we are teaching 'a false gospel' would be the ones that say that they have read the bible from cover to cover multiple times and will claim to be the 'authority' on the bible because they did that.

So, If you think we are full of it, that's fine. That is expected.

Many will call this a 'works based salvation' doctrine, which in effect is is NOT. It is being obedient to The Lord Jesus Christ as we are showing that we love Him through our obedience to HIM, doing what He is asking US to do. Nobody is forcing you to believe anything, Christian, so settle down.

It will be YOUR salvation on the line, so use this time you have to make your election SURE and work out YOUR salvation with fear and trembling by confirming it with the Lord Jesus Christ directly YOURSELF, since Jesus is going to be judging you when you die anyway.

The Kingdom of God Is Jesus Christ's Home

As we have been talking about salvation and what is involved, the doctrine of Once Saved, Always saved has been brought up as the 'true' doctrine because of the promises that are in the Bible that they claim are theirs. We have shown throughout this book series that the promises are conditional, and the conditions of those promises being fulfilled will allow a person to enter into their rest.

Once Saved, Always saved says that you are 'saved' through a belief and a confession; we have proven that is ERROR, and this narrative will also give you some food for thought. As we have studied this, we wondered why people are not understanding that the Kingdom of God is Jesus' home; This is where the Lord is, and how can we think that we are going to be invited in if the Lord Jesus Christ does not know us.

As we started down this line of thinking, we started to see that all of the preparations that the Lord Jesus Christ has made for those who are His make PERFECT SENSE. We can easily refute Once Saved, Always saved as error because it is clear to see. SO, let's take a look at some of these points so you can mull over them and make up your own mind.

As Disciples of Christ who have completed the process of salvation, we would be invited into Jesus Home

Now, you know that if you invite someone into your home, you are usually careful to make sure you do not offend the host if you are the guest. That means you are normally on your best behaviour, you are using the manners that your parents taught you, and you are cordial to your host. As people who were mired in sin before we were put on the road to salvation, we were filthy, nasty, disgusting and we STUNK. This is the reason why when the Lord takes us out of sin, then cleans us up first before He goes on with the training we will need.

Let's take a look at this closely.

The Lord of Host is going to clean us UP FIRST. How does He do that? By the washing of the water of the word, and by His blood which makes our dirty robes as white as snow. We have to be prepared so we can enter into the Kingdom of the Lord, and this is one of the steps in the process of salvation. The Lord Jesus takes the time to clean us up so we are suitable for His home; He then trains us how He wants us to be while we are in His Home.

This brings to mind the Once Saved, Always Saved crowd. They think that because they confessed and then claimed the promises of God (they actually hijacked them, but you already know this from our previous books and articles) for eternal security.

Let this sink in for a minute, Christian.

Let's just say that they made it in. Are they REALLY? Let's see if this is true or not.

- They are not prepared;
- they are NOT cleaned;
- they are still full of sin and filth because they have not gone through the process of salvation and restoration.

Can you now see how much in ERROR these people are in?

What makes you think that the Lord Jesus Christ will let ANY filthy, stank, nasty 'Christian' into His Home? Didn't the Lord Jesus Christ say to us to 'Be Holy'? If Jesus did that, He would be a punk, and no one would ever follow Him. Just because a 'Christian' went to an altar and 'confessed', you think that the Lord Jesus Christ is to throw open His doors to ol' stank nasty, filthy you?

Can you see how ridiculous that line of thinking is?

Those of us who know Jesus know that He would 'Be HOLY', just as He said He would.

1 John 2:4
He that saith, I know Him, and keepeth not His Commandments, is a Liar, and the Truth is not in him.

Jesus requires us to KNOW Him intimately

As we go on in this line of thinking, would Jesus really just let ANYONE into the Kingdom of God? I submit to you that He would NOT, and there is a requirement that we have to KNOW Jesus for real. That's right, Christian, Jesus has to be intimately familiar with us as we are with Him before He will let us into His Home, the Kingdom of God.

Most people who ascribe to the Once Saved Always Saved doctrine do not know Jesus personally or intimately because most of them will not do anything to get intimate with Jesus while they are living. Since they know that they are already 'saved', what is the point? They will just show up at Jesus door, and expect Jesus to let them into His Home.

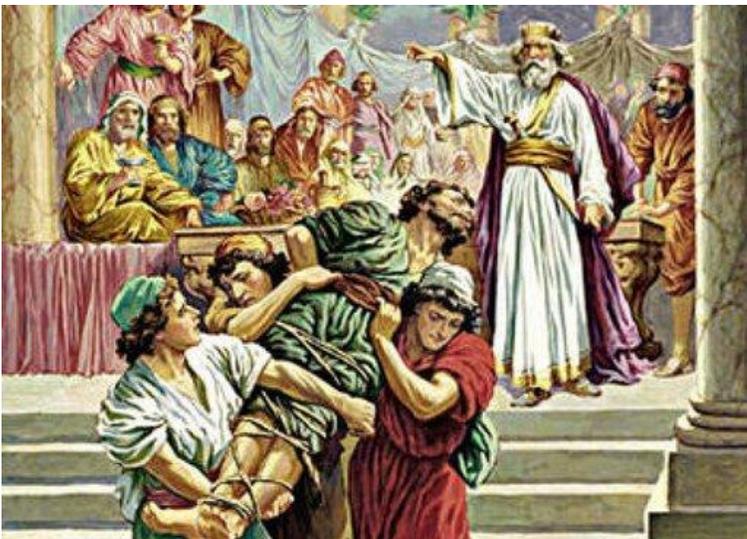

- Where is the respect for Jesus?
- Where is the honour that Jesus has earned with his sacrifice?
- Where is the respect of the worthiness of Jesus, as He was the only one who could open the seals during the Tribulation?
- Where is the Holiness that Jesus expects of us?

Let's just say that you were Jesus, Christian. Would you let into your home someone you did not know personally to come and live with you forever?

Well, would you?

This person is fresh off of the street. They are nasty and dirty. They stink. They have no idea of what soap and water is nor are they interested. All they know is that you promised them that they could live in your home forever because they made a confession. They could care less about you, and since they do not know you, they will do what they want and not feel anything about it.

Can you NOW see how erroneous that line of thinking is? Can you NOW see why we have to go through a process of sanctification and salvation so we are suitable for Jesus Home? Can you now see that Jesus has to deem us WORTHY of being in His Home?

The more we look at this Once Saved, Always Saved doctrine, the worse it gets. This doctrine has Jesus being a servant to YOU, Christian, instead of you being a Servant to Jesus. After all, Jesus did 'save' you, correct? These people would expect Jesus to kowtow to their whims because He 'promised' eternal security.

That is demonic thinking, Christian, because it is exactly opposite of what Jesus would accept and do. Why would Jesus do this if He is Lord of lords and

King of kings? It's not like He didn't pay the price required for you to OWE Him a debt that you CANNOT pay - ever. Why would He allow you, Christian, in His Home if He doesn't know you?

Let's take a look at this scripture:

Matthew 22:2 -22:14 - The kingdom of heaven is like unto a certain king, which made a marriage for his son, And sent forth his servants to call them that were bidden to the wedding: and they would not come. Again, he sent forth other servants, saying, Tell them which are bidden, Behold, I have prepared my dinner: my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come unto the marriage. But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his farm, another to his merchandise: And the remnant took his servants, and entreated them spitefully, and slew them. But when the king heard thereof, he was wroth: and he sent forth his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city. Then saith he to his servants, The wedding is ready, but they which were bidden were not worthy. Go ye therefore into the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage. So those servants went out into the highways, and gathered together all as many as they found, both bad and good: and the wedding was furnished with guests. And he saith unto him, Friend, how camest thou in hither not having a wedding garment? And he was speechless. Then said the king to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him into outer darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. For many are called, but few are chosen.

So let's look closely at this scripture. We already know that the King is The Lord of Hosts, and that the guests that killed the messengers were the Jews. But let's look a little closer at the guests whom the King gathered from the street.

We notice that all of the guests had a wedding garment on except one guy. The guy who was there at the wedding table who did not have a garment on was picked up and cast out of the house. Here is something to chew on, Once Saved, always saved Christian.

Notice that everyone else at the table has the appropriate garments on. They were worthy to be there because the King deemed them worthy to be at the dinner.

I submit to you that those people with the correct wedding garments on would be the Disciples of Christ, as they have been through the process of being cleaned up and sanctified by the bridegroom as being worthy of being at the dinner. I will venture to say that each of the guests had the Spirit of the Lord, the Holy Ghost, except for that one guy.

I will also submit to you that the person without the wedding garment that managed to get into the dinner is a type of a Once Saved, Always Saved person. We say this because:

- that person has never been sanctified;
- they have not been through the salvation process;
- they have never been cleaned up from worldly filth;
- They didn't have the Holy Ghost because they were told He is 'not for today'.

They have just 'confessed' and 'believed'. You can see what happened to them.

So why was the person without a wedding garment thrown out?

It is because that person did NOT follow the wishes of the King, which is to be sanctified and made worthy of being at the dinner. That person did NOT have the Holy Ghost; that person was NOT worthy enough to be at the dinner. This is just one more reason why once saved, always saved is demonic and ERROR. What kind of mind would just go to a dinner and sit there without at least trying to find a wedding garment?

Although it would make sense why the person without a garment on would be thrown out, it also gives you an idea of what the Lord of Hosts wants for His Son, Jesus. We all have wedding garments because we are the Bride of Christ, are full of the Holy Ghost, and we would have been sanctified, salvaged, and worthy to be the Body of Christ. If a person was NOT sanctified, like the guy without a wedding garment, that person is cast out into utter darkness.

This whole narrative focuses on what we would think that Jesus would expect in HIS home. Unlike how the devil portrays Jesus, Jesus is a KING and He will be treated as A King. We can see the following things:

- Jesus is only going to accept those whom He knows and trusts;
- Jesus is only going to outfit all of those He knows and trusts with wedding garments;
- Jesus is only going to accept those who fulfilled the terms of their salvation agreement with Him;
- Jesus is going to close the door in the faces of those who think they know Him but do NOT;
- Jesus is going to cast away those who gave Him lip service only, by confessing and 'believing' only;
- Jesus is going to accept those who have stayed with Him until the end.

And what is the reward? The scriptures speak for itself:

John 14:2-3 - In my Father's house are many mansions. If it weren't so, I would have told you. I am going to prepare a place for you. If I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and will receive you to myself; that where I am, you may be there also.

Don't you think it is time for you to get right with the Lord Jesus Christ so you can make it in?

As we always say on this site - don't take our word for anything. Get with the Lord Jesus Christ and ask Him directly if what you are seeing is true or not. Ask Him to show you this concept and more. Get used to talking with Jesus; build a relationship with Him and start to get to know Him for real.

As always, take NOTHING that you have seen here in this book as the truth. It is YOUR responsibility to study and check out everything that you see and hear, and you have an advocate in the Lord Jesus Christ who will help you if you would just ask Him.

Take this upon yourself, Christian, as YOU need to get YOUR Bible, YOUR concordance, YOUR dictionary, YOUR pens/pencils, YOUR notepad and then YOU need to seek out the Lord Jesus Christ and ask Him to help YOU so YOU can make it into His Kingdom, since it will be YOU standing alone in front of Jesus when YOU are being judged.

It is YOUR responsibility to make sure YOU are in the faith and that YOU have completed YOUR sanctification during the sanctification process and YOU have gotten YOUR forgiveness and YOU have repented of all of YOUR sins before YOU are judged by Jesus.

Scripture tells us that hell will enlarge itself to accommodate all of the people who will be sent there because of idols like the pope, as you can see in scripture here:

Isaiah 5:14 - Therefore hell hath enlarged herself, and opened her mouth without measure: and their glory, and their multitude, and their pomp, and he that rejoiceth, shall descend into it.

Take this as a warning, Christian, as the Lord Jesus Christ is NOT desperate for people, as there were only 8 people who got on the ark before the flood, and only 2 people from the Hebrews from Egypt made it into the Promised Land.

Be wise, and stay IN Jesus so you are not lost.

Here is Our Challenge to you, Christian

We challenge you to go to Jesus directly RIGHT NOW and ask Him if what is shown here is true. Use this as a means to start a conversation with The Lord Jesus Christ and sit with Him and ask Him questions. Start with (asking out loud):

“Jesus, is what I just read true?”

He will answer you and NOW you will be on the true road to salvation, knowing for SURE if you are going to make it or not, as Jesus would have told you. Keep talking with Him. Get to know Him and He will start to reveal Himself to you. You need to find out for yourself and work out YOUR salvation for YOU, as the scriptures tell us to.

I want to stress that we are NOT a church, nor are we a ministry, and we do not want to be either. All we are saying is that you, Christian, should take what you read from these books you can freely download and bring these topics up to the Lord Jesus Christ Himself and get your verification of what is being presented. It will be up to you to talk directly to Jesus personally and get the understanding of the things you have read from Jesus directly.

Many of the topics that are brought up should be taught in the Churches so you will know the Lord Jesus Christ and be ready for when things get a little hot down here on earth. If your church is not teaching you how to be in Order or how to stay in Order, get out of there and go to the Lord Jesus Christ directly and get him to send you the Holy Ghost so you can be properly taught. Being in Order is where the power is, Christian, and you need the Power of the Lord Jesus Christ to defeat the devil and free your family and yourself. Do not waste 30+ years of your life getting beat down by the devil when you can stand against him.
